■ AT&T OPENS UNDER PERFECT SKIES

With conditions nearly perfect and temperatures in the 60s on all three courses, there were plenty of smiles and some outstanding rounds of golf as the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am got underway Thursday. But some of the celebrities didn't fare quite so well.

On 7 at Spyglass, Samuel L. Jackson asked one of the pros in his foursome, Jay Williamson, for advice after his tee shot snuggled up to some utility boxes.

When Gary Sinise (left) was complimented on his fine approach shot on 7 at Spyglass, he said, "That's one in a row." After he putted, a fan next to the green called out, "There's Colonel Dan, with the titanium legs," Sinise smiled and corrected the reference to Forrest Gump: "That's Lieutenant Dan — but thanks for the promotion!"

Before hitting out of the rough, comedian George Lopez (right) explained to the gallery why he was smoking a cigar on the course: "Because I'm not allowed to smoke them at home!"

Red-hot Phil Mickelson (above) was already four under par when he teed off on 6 at Spyglass. He finished the day with 10 birdies and was the leader at 10 under par — a course record.

ADA lawyer's new strategy: Insult the judge

By PAUL MILLER

LOS ANGELES — THE LAWYER who's filed hundreds of nearly identical ADA lawsuits against restaurants, wineries and retail stores in central California over the last two years launched a bitter, personal attack this week against U.S. District Court Judge Edward Rafeedie, who is trying to stop the lawyer from filing "sham" suits based on what the judge called "contrived" injuries to his disabled clients.

"I would call the judge a Cro-Magnon, but that would be an insult to Cro-Magnons," said Stephen Yagman, an infamously outspoken civil rights lawyer, on behalf of the ADA specialist, Thomas Frankovich, who has been threatened with sanctions by Rafeedie for filing the lawsuits, including at least 18 against businesses in Monterey County.

Reading a statement from a yellow legal pad after Monday's hearing on the possibility that Frankovich could be fined, or even disbarred, Yagman continued: "Judge Rafeedie's mean-spiritedness, his cruelty, and his contempt for civil rights make Hitler look like a humanitarian."

Frankovich's disabled client, Jarek Molski, was declared a "vexatious litigant" and barred from filing new ADA claims by Rafeedie in December. This week's hearing was to determine whether Frankovich should be punished for filing those suits on Molski's behalf.

And while Yagman used the harshest possible words to condemn the judge's actions, and predicted Rafeedie would be "thrashed

FROM WAR ZONE TO THE ARMS OF HIS FAMILY

By MARY BROWNFIELD

AFTER A year serving in Iraq with the U.S. Army National Guard, Staff Sgt. John Hanson finally returned home this week. The Carmel building maintenance worker spent Wednesday night in his Salinas house with his wife, Annette, and kids, Travis and Keely.

When Hanson and his fellow soldiers flew from Kuwait to Vandenberg Air Force Base Tuesday night — followed by a bus ride to Camp Roberts — Annette was unsure how long it would be before she could embrace her husband.

"They told us if we went down there, they would detain us, and we would not be able to see our guys," she said.

But that changed the following day. Annette and Travis — Keely was at softball tryouts — drove to Camp Roberts and waited almost four hours to finally catch a glimpse of Hanson.

"It was wonderful to see him, and especially the look on TJ's face when he saw his dad," Annette reported Thursday morning. "He actually got to come home with us and spend the night."

It was at 10 p.m. that Keely reunited with her father, who will drive back to Camp Roberts each day "and will hopefully get to come home every night."

Friends and neighbors pay tribute to 'angel' who was a computer pioneer

By CHRIS COUNTS

MUCH HAS been written about longtime Monterey Peninsula resident Dorothy McEwen since she died at the age of 61 on Feb. 1. The Washington Post and the Boston Globe noted her passing, recognizing her role as a computer software pioneer. But to many of her friends, McEwen was far more than just a high-tech historical footnote — she was, quite simply, "The Angel of the Valley."

Charles Hagen, a longtime Carmel Valley resident, recalled her generosity.

"She was like an angel for people in need," he said. "She had friends who were wealthy and educated and

Carmelites to pay more for trash pickup

By MARY BROWNFIELD

WHEN THEY receive their bills, Carmel residents and business owners will notice higher garbage collection charges.

Last Tuesday the city council approved the 2.6 percent rate hike, which is retroactive to Jan. 1, to compensate for cost-of-living increases and new state clean-air rules.

According to the city's contract with the company, Carmel Marina Waste Management can request a rate increase equivalent to 75 percent of the Consumer Price Index for the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose area each year.

General manager Mark Arsenault said county jurisdictions allow for the annual cost-of-living adjustment "because their populations are not growing."

Carmel's rates are competitive, Arsenault told the council Feb. 1, especially considering what they pay for.

"I serve four counties, and there are not more extensive services that our people provide than here," he said. The average residential rate for a 35-gallon can is increasing from $20.07 to $20.59.

Carmel residents enjoy a privilege no other customers have: They can leave their garbage cans in their back yards, or elsewhere on their properties, and the trash collectors will retrieve them, empty them and return them to their appropriate places. The city made that arrangement with Waste Management to avoid having the unsightly cans at curbside.

"We're paying for cans to be picked up and delivered back because of our large absentee population," Mayor Sue McCloud said, but many residents are unaware, so "a large number of [the cans] reside on the curb day in and day out."

She asked Arsenault if his company could do a better job of informing customers of the unique service, perhaps by placing stickers on the cans.

McCloud also wanted the company to remind residents and commercial customers of the importance of recycling. By law, the city must divert half of its waste to reuse programs or face stiff fines.

"We need the help of everybody in the city to do this," McCloud said.

Arsenault said the 2.6 percent increase also includes just under 1 percent to pay for retrofits required by the California Air Resources Board. In an April 2004 letter, CARB Chairman Alan Lloyd advised cities and counties they would be expected to help cut garbage trucks' diesel fumes.

"Since all California residents will enjoy the health benefits of this regulation, the board felt waste collection companies should not stand alone in shouldering the costs," he wrote.

Before the council voted unanimously to approve the rate hike, councilman Gerard Rose commented, "The rates are unusually low, and the service is unusually high. You don't get this kind of service anywhere."

Pug party planned

CARMEL BEACH should be packed with pugs next Sunday, when their owners meet, greet and talk about canine news, including Spay Day USA — the Doris Day Animal Foundation's campaign to reduce pet overpopulation.

Organized by Linda Houts, the get together will also provide pet owners the opportunity to join the brand new Pug Club, which will meet monthly at the beach "for the purpose of pug information, socializing and encouraging support for pug rescue groups," such as the nonprofit Pug Savers.

Houts said all pugs are welcome, though large, unneutered, pugnacious canines should be left at home, as many dogs will be off-leash on the city's beach. She also encouraged dog owners to bring chairs and "pug-proof picnics" to the gathering set for noon to 4 p.m. Feb. 20 on Carmel Beach at Eighth Avenue.

Be prepared.

Is a Reverse Mortgage Right for You?

Financial Freedom now offers a reverse mortgage where all origination fees are waived. This saves you thousands of dollars all of which go to increase the benefit amount. The only requirement is that all loan proceeds must be withdrawn. Your financial advisor should be consulted to determine the best use of this money.

Homeowners who are 62 or older may qualify and be eligible even if there is an existing first or second mortgage. The size of the reverse mortgage depends upon the borrowers age(s), the program selected, the home's value, and prevailing interest rates. There are no income qualifications.

A reverse mortgage turns a portion of your equity into tax-free money you can use right now. You make no monthly payments on a reverse mortgage and the loan is not due to be paid until you sell, move or die.

YOGA AT 100, A PET SKUNK AND VERY CLEAN TEETH

By CHRIS COUNTS

LORELEI BROCK has never been afraid to try the unconventional. Consider her time-tested solution for perfect teeth — brushing them with Ivory soap.

Two years ago, a 98-year-old Brock decided to try something "new" called yoga.

"I'd never heard of it before," said Brock, who recently turned 100. "Yoga keeps me supple. I'm so grateful when I can reach down and touch the floor."

Since her introduction to yoga, Brock has regularly attended weekly classes at Park Lane, a senior living community in Monterey. She praises the benefits of postures and breathing exercises that originated in India over 4,000 years ago.

"It's really a super class," said Brock, who has lived at Park Lane for 14 years. "I look forward to it every week. The routines are so helpful. I do them a lot at home."

Yoga instructor Gina Puccinelli is in awe of Brock's remarkable physical condition and spirit.

"Lorelei was one of my first students here and one of my most consistent 'yoginis,'" said Puccinelli. "I can count on her being here every week."

Brock's devotion to her yoga practice gives new meaning to the phrase, "late bloomer." Perhaps least impressed by her achievement is Brock, whose long life has been extraordinary from its start.

At the age of five, she was rescued from a fall into San Francisco Bay — by a dog.

"My mother couldn't swim," she recalled. "We had an Irish water spaniel named "Dr. Boy" and he pulled me out of the water."

Ms. Brock strikes a pose.

Perhaps because a dog saved her from drowning, Brock developed a lifelong affection for animals. Yet even in choosing a pet, she has opted for the unconventional.

A skunk called Chanel

"I once had a pet skunk named 'Chanel,'" she said with a sly smile. "She had a litter box and liked to stay in the house and sit in my lap. She was adorable."

Not content to settle for a vocation considered more appropriate for her gender, she graduated from Stanford University with a B.S. in microbiology in 1926. There were very few female microbiologists at the time, and her line of work took her to some interesting and unusual places, including a brothel in San Francisco's Chinatown where she took blood samples from the employees.

Brock's natural curiosity about people and places led to many travels abroad.

"I know more about Asia, South America and Africa than I do about my own country," she said. "I've never been to Chicago. But I once spent a month in Zanzibar."

Of all the places she has visited, China is her favorite.

"I worked at a Chinese hospital in the 1930s," she recalled. "I loved China. The people were great. I still think about them."

So much travel has imbued Brock with a great perspective of the Monterey Peninsula, where she has lived for the last 30 years.

Homeless man accused of lewd acts and sexual battery

By MARY BROWNFIELD

A 50-YEAR-OLD male transient was arrested last week on suspicion of indecent exposure, lewd conduct and sexual battery stemming from four separate incidents in Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Detective Jesse Juarez said he identified Randolph "Randy" Porter as a possible suspect after hearing him described by four adult victims whose identities are being protected.

The investigation began last month, after a female reported a man exposed himself to her while she was doing janitorial work at a downtown Carmel shop around 9 p.m. Dec. 16.

Other victims told police a man was masturbating in a public building during daylight hours on two different occasions. Juarez said the suspect was "partially obscured from view."

A fourth victim claimed a man inappropriately touched her against her will while they were driving in her car on Scenic Road. She told police she had been giving him a ride from Monterey to Carmel at the time.

Police believe Porter briefly befriended some of his victims and that all were targeted at random.

"As a result of the investigation, his name came up as a possible suspect," Juarez said. "Photos were obtained and photo lineups were compiled, and he was ultimately identified by the victims as the person responsible for the acts."

Randolph Porter

While conducting surveillance in areas known to be frequented by Porter, Juarez spied him last Monday night.

"He was walking past me in the street," Juarez said.

Armed with a warrant issued by Monterey County Superior Court, Juarez arrested Porter Jan. 31 and booked him into county jail on charges of indecent exposure, engaging in lewd acts and sexual battery.

He is being held at Monterey County Jail on $250,000 bail and is set to appear in court Feb. 16.

Thieves break into C.V. Library, Big Sur beach gatehouse

By MARY BROWNFIELD

BURGLARS HIT a Carmel Valley library and a Big Sur beach kiosk over the weekend, stealing equipment from one and cash from the other.

Monterey County Sheriff's Investigator Mike Shapiro learned Tuesday that thieves broke into the small library on Carmel Valley Road through a rear window under cover of darkness.

"The cleaning crew found window slats partially removed from a back window but didn't realize anything had been taken," Shapiro said of the first people on the scene following the break-in.

But library employees arrived Feb. 8 to discover the thieves had taken a flat panel Gateway monitor and a 13-inch TV/VCR combination valued at a total of $450, though the loss could creep higher depending on how much damage the suspects caused by ripping a communications cable from the wall, according to Shapiro.

He suspects the crime occurred sometime between 7:30 Saturday night and midnight Sunday.

"They had unscrewed three floodlights in the back to prevent being seen," he said.

He also has some clues that could help identify the culprits.

"I obtained quite a few latent fingerprints from the glass," Shapiro said, though due to a backlogged crime lab at the sheriff's office, it could be months before the prints are analyzed.

Pfeiffer Beach hit

On Saturday, Troy Tollefson told Shapiro a burglar had smashed the window of his fee collection kiosk at Pfeiffer Beach the night before to steal cash and a cash box.

Tollefson works for Parks Management Company — the vendor that collects the $5-per-vehicle day-use fee at the beach — and he reported the burglar took $125 from the small kiosk, according to Shapiro.

"It was a window smash with a rock that happened sometime during the night, and once they broke the window to the kiosk, they got inside and removed cash from one cash box and then took another cash box," he said.

The burglar apparently did not have to search long for the stash.

"That's a very, very small kiosk, and essentially there's a bunch of shelves with really no place to hide anything," he said. "It would be easy to ransack. I recommended to this guy that once he leaves the kiosk, he should not leave the cash there."

Shapiro said no suspects were identified in the break-in.

Volunteers keep under-appreciated Big Sur landmark open

By CHRIS COUNTS

IF THERE were an award for California's least appreciated scenic landmark, certainly Point Sur would win.

While several million visitors pass by Point Sur and its lighthouse on Highway 1 each year, scarcely 5,000 actually stop to visit. Its new steward, California State Parks, is overburdened with the management of local campgrounds and can only offer minimal support and attention to the massive rock and its 19th century navigational improvements.

Yet through the efforts of a dedicated group of volunteers, Point Sur State Historic Park, about 20 miles south of Carmel, is able to offer its somewhat sporadic visitors quite a memorable experience.

Mary Jane and Jack Hammerland are two of 64 active volunteers who help operate the park. Like most volunteers, they're quick to downplay the importance of their own individual roles. But ask them why they do what they do and it's obvious they are passionate about Point Sur.

"People come from all over the globe to see our lighthouse," said Jack Hammerland, a Carmel resident. "They're aficionados. They're just nuts about lighthouses. And we think our location is one of the most pristine in the world. It's really an incredible place."

While it is hard to imagine today, Point Sur once played a pivotal role in the history of California.

"Not everyone came to California in a covered wagon," explained Mary Jane Hammerland, a docent and board member of Central Coast Lighthouse Keepers. "Sailing vessels played an important role in the settlement of the state."

Especially after the discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill in 1848, and before the completion of the the transcontinental railroad in 1869, ships carrying new residents traveled around the southern tip of South America and up the coast to San Francisco. The journey was long and dangerous, and the mountainous, craggy coast now known as Big Sur was a particular navigational hazard.

After the wreck of the Ventura in 1875, mariners petitioned the U.S. Lighthouse Service to install a light at Point Sur. The wheels of bureaucracy turned slowly, but by 1889 the lighthouse was ready to operate. For the next 85 years, a series of caretakers and their families lived atop the windswept and often fogbound rocky promontory, managing day-to-day operations. In 1974, the last full-time resident left Point Sur and the facility was automated. Today, the U.S. Coast Guard services the lighthouse which, even in the era of global positioning satellites, is still a comfort to ships making their way along the California coast.

If it were not for the efforts of volunteers like the Hammerlands, the Point Sur lighthouse might be publicly inaccessible, as are many other silent reminders of the age of of sail and steam that dot the shores of the United States.

The volunteers lead guided tours of Point Sur and its lighthouse on Saturdays at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and Sundays at 10 a.m. year-round. Tours are available at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Wednesdays from April through October, and 10 a.m. Thursdays in July and August. Tours are also available at sunset from April 23 through Oct. 17 when the moon is full.

"Sometimes the weather actually cooperates with us," said Mary Jane Hammerland of the full-moon tours. "Even in the fog, it's a quite remarkable experience."

To get an idea of how hard volunteers work to keep the lighthouse open to the public, consider the following numbers: In 2004, they provided 266 tours and contributed 12,300 hours of labor.

"It's not an easy job," said Mary Jane Hammerland. "It

Check forgers steal $41K from builder's account

By MARY BROWNFIELD

A GENERAL contractor working in Carmel lost $41,000 when someone forged checks from his business bank account, police learned Feb. 5.

Five checks — three for less than $5,000, and two for more than $10,000 — were cashed out of state between Jan. 24 and Feb. 4, according Carmel Police Detective Jesse Juarez. The checks were duplicates of originals issued on victim Fred Kern's account.

Kern learned of the fraud from his bank, Washington Mutual, and no one knows how the thieves obtained the original checks in order to make copies.

Information is thin, but Juarez hopes to find the answers.

"If there's a way for me to establish that the crimes originated here, even though the checks were cashed elsewhere, then I'll continue the investigation as far as possible," he said. "I'm going to try to find out if these checks are being compromised here."

The contractor should not be liable for the stolen cash, provided Washington Mutual Bank's internal investigation does not identify him as a suspect, or a client with poor financial management skills, rather than a victim.

"As long as the bank is satisfied that a forgery has been committed, they will honor what the victim is saying," Juarez said. "Then they themselves become the victim, because they take on the loss."

HELP SOUGHT FOR FIRE VICTIMS

THE PACIFIC Grove Chamber of Commerce is leading a drive to help a family whose house in Big Sur burned down Feb. 7.

Eric Braun and his family, including a 2-month-old baby, lost all of their belongings in the fire, but escaped unharmed.

Donations are being accepted at the chamber office. For information, call (831) 373-3304.

"I will never criticize our climate," she said. "I remember being in Panama and having to cool off under the sprinklers before going to bed."

For three decades, Brock has worked part-time at a thrift store in Seaside operated by Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services.

"All of the money we raise stays on the Monterey Peninsula," she said of one of her favorite local charities.

Brock keeps a busy schedule — between yoga classes and volunteering at the thrift store, she finds time to take a three-day-week exercise class with a fitness trainer that focuses on strength, flexibility and balance. And if there's any time left over, she mends clothes for her friends and neighbors.

She also likes to attend church services.

"I pray each day that I can hear and see," she said.

To a visitor, her memory seems to be holding up just fine, but she doesn't think so.

"I can't remember people names and where I put things, but I remember rhymes," she said with a mischievous grin before reciting a line inspired by a recent meal at Park Lane. "The food is so great . . . you are bound to gain weight."

She then commented to a staff member, "I don't know how you put up with all these old people all day, always complaining about the food."

Living to 100 requires a certain amount of self-discipline — Brock eats just twice a day and generally avoids snacks.

"I've been five-feet-tall and I've weighed 110 pounds most of my life," she said. "If I gain one pound, I take it right off. I'm a chocoholic, but I really have to watch it."

Regardless what she eats, Brock religiously brushes her teeth after each meal — with soap.

"I still have all my teeth," said Brock, flashing a 100-year-old smile that would win the admiration of any dentist.

takes a commitment."

Nearly three-quarters of the volunteers are retired. Some travel from as far away as the Bay Area. Mary Jane Hammerland describes the volunteers as "people who are interested in local history and people who enjoy meeting other people."

Most volunteers lead tours, although a particularly hard-working subgroup of volunteers known as the "Preservation Gang" focuses on maintenance.

While the Point Sur volunteers go about their business relatively quietly and their efforts have not gone unnoticed.

"We are very appreciative and thankful for what the volunteers have done at Point Sur," said Dave Schaechtele, California State Parks spokesperson. "We have a great relationship with them. Every day they're out there doing something that makes the lighthouse alive and vital for visitors."

Prospective volunteers are invited to attend an orientation meeting on Feb. 27 in Monterey, followed by twice-a-week training classes in March and April. For more information about becoming a volunteer, call (831) 649-7139.

MURRAY DAVIDSON, 5, is a Border collie with so much energy he can run 12 miles in the morning and then beg to go to the beach in the afternoon for more fun and frolicking.

Dad Andrew and Mom Amanda are training for the Big Sur Marathon in April, so Murray accompanies them separately on their six-mile runs in the morning, chalking up 12 miles for himself. His personal best is 18 miles in one day.

Two years ago, Dad and Mom saw Murray's photo on a Border Collie Rescue website and fell in love with his appealing face with its one blue eye and one hazel eye. Dad Andrew grew up in England on his father's dairy farm where Border collies were always the dog of choice. They drove to the pickup point in Chico and brought Murray home.

This Wednesday, Murray came to Carmel Beach with his parents and 11-month-old baby brother, Parker, to search out driftwood and take a quick dip in the ocean, which was at very low tide, and therefore offered an extended beach for running and digging. He is an indefatigable fetcher of Frisbees.

Aside from chasing deer off his home property and collecting pine cones, Murray's favorite pastime is playing with Parker, who adores him. When it's Parker's dinnertime, choice tidbits are thrown to Murray from his highchair which Murray catches, Frisbee style. But the most endearing snapshot we'll leave with readers, is Murray gently waking Parker in the morning.

Parker reaches out and touches Murray's furry face, and then goes into the first fit of giggles of the day.

Forest Lodge condominium plans raise no opposition

By MARY BROWNFIELD

FOUR CONDOS designed to look like houses of varying architectural styles could replace most of the old Forest Lodge at one of the city's busiest intersections. The planning commission held its second public hearing to receive more details of property owner Dennis Levett's proposal Wednesday.

Ultimately, a "specific plan" will be written to cover development on the property, which is zoned for single-family homes but has been used as a hotel since 1948 and is bordered by houses on Torres Street, a hotel on Ocean, a church on Mountain View and the Carmel Plaza on Junipero.

California law "gives local jurisdictions the ability to develop a unique set of design standards for a particular property," principal planner Brian Roseth explained. The city has developed five or six specific plans, including Carmel Plaza's. "In each case, we have looked at the unique site constraints and the surrounding neighborhood, and then developed a plan that seemed to fit in. They are written into the municipal code and function like a special zoning district."

Planner Sean Conroy said the plan would likely combine the zoning rules for residential and residential-commercial districts. Under R-1 zoning, the 12,912-square-foot site could only contain three units totaling 3,350 square feet. Under RC zoning, it could soundly" when the case reaches the 9th Circuit Court of Appeal, the judge didn't mince words about what he called Frankovich's "unethical" behavior.

"The court has reviewed 223 complaints filed by Mr. Frankovich in 2004, most of them on behalf of Mr. Molski," Rafeedie began. "Each of the 223 complaints states the same five causes of action, asks for the same damages, and is virtually identical to the other suits, even down to the typos."

All of the suits claim Molski, or another defendant, was injured because of handicapped access problems at the businesses being sued — injuries "the court believes are contrived to effectuate the defendants' insurance policies."

Rafeedie was more specific about Molski's alleged fakery: "In one four-day period, he claimed he was injured at 16 different establishments, and on nine separate occasions he filed four or more lawsuits for injuries allegedly sustained in one day."

The judge called these multiple injury claims, "a record of abuse that completely undercuts that he is a victim of discrimination."

Rafeedie also condemned Frankovich for sending letters to each of the businesses he sued, advising the businesses not to get outside counsel and to settle the lawsuits quickly.

"And Mr. Frankovich even offered to represent the businesses in lawsuits against their insurance companies if they wouldn't settle," according to Rafeedie. "These letters reinforce the court's conclusion that Frankovich and his client's objective is only to get money from the people they sue."

After the hearing, Frankovich referred reporters' questions to Yagman, who has a long record of criticizing federal judges with harsh language, and even drew a two-year suspension from a three-judge disciplinary panel in 1994 for calling one judge "an anti-semite, ignorant, dishonest and being drunk on the bench," according to the Los Angeles Times. (The suspension was overturned on appeal.)

But Frankovich personally defended the letters to the businesses he sued, including eight restaurants in Carmel, saying the judge quoted the letters "out of context."

Yagman also angrily stated that "there was absolutely nothing unethical in these letters."

In legal papers filed with Rafeedie, Frankovich and Yagman also defended the flood of ADA lawsuits, claiming that Frankovich is merely helping protect his clients from discrimination. And they said they had an affidavit from a doctor stating the multiple alleged injuries to Molski are real.

Rafeedie declined to impose sanctions this week, instead hinting that he might throw out all of Frankovich's suits because his clients didn't have standing to bring them — an issue raised by the owners of the Mandarin Touch Restaurant in Solvang, and their attorney, Robert H. Appert of San Gabriel, who have vigorously challenged Molski's suit against the restaurant.

The lawyers' objective 'is only to get money from the people they sue.'

— Judge Edward Rafeedie

To bring his claims in federal court, the judge explained, Molski might have to show he has been a regular customer at the businesses he sues — which would be difficult for him, because he lives in the San Fernando Valley and sues businesses all over the state.

The tactic could be a blow to any disabled person's chances of filing multiple ADA claims in federal court, according to one expert on handicapped accessibility law.

Rafeedie scheduled a March 21 hearing on the standing issue.

"He's trying to block access for disabled people to federal courts," Yagman claimed. "His political beliefs are to the right of Atilla the Hun."

Rafeedie declined to respond to Yagman's attacks. But the roadblocks he's put in the way of the state's most notorious ADA litigant left at least one local businessman very encouraged.

"It's about time someone put a stop to what amounts to highway robbery," said the businessman, who didn't want to be identified for fear of drawing more ADA claims.

others who weren't. She didn't make a distinction between the two. You don't meet that many individuals who leave such wonderful footprints."

Hagen said McEwen, who had brain cancer, faced death in much the same way as she faced life — with grace.

"She was a role model for meeting your maker," he said.

Kathleen Tarp, a Carmel Valley resident since 1989, said it was McEwen's humility that set her apart from others.

"Everything she touched turned to gold," said Tarp. "But she never wanted kudos and she never wanted anything back. She just gave and gave. She never talked about what she did, she just did it. She was the most outstanding woman I have ever known."

Another Carmel Valley resident, Julia Harvey, discovered McEwen's generous nature while seeking homes for feral cats.

"I got on the phone with Dorothy and I asked her if there was a possibility she might be able to take a cat," Harvey remembered. "She said, 'Bring at least two.' I said to myself, 'I love this woman.' I knew her character from that moment."

Longtime Pebble Beach resident Judy Mervis was impressed with the ease in which McEwen made the transition from running a software company to running a ranch.

"Dorothy once invited my mom to visit her ranch," said Mervis, who worked at McEwen's company for four years. "She took us for a tour of the property in a golf cart. It was late in the afternoon, and she wanted to move a donkey into a barn. 'Corazon the Burro' was its name. Well, the donkey wouldn't budge, so without skipping a beat, Dorothy went into a field, grabbed a tall reed of grass, tapped the donkey on the flank, and up the hill went Corazon. That image of Dorothy — suntanned, smiling and embracing her new life — is how I'd like to remember her."

Born in Seattle, Wash., in 1943, McEwen attended the University of Washington before moving with her husband, Gary Kildall, to Pacific Grove in 1969. He taught at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey.

In 1976, Kildall and McEwen started Digital Research, a company that designed floppy disk systems for several microcomputer manufacturers and developed software for the nascent personal computer industry.

In 1980, IBM was seeking an operating system for its first-generation PC and contacted Kildall after receiving a referral from Bill Gates, whose fledgling company, Microsoft, did not have an operating system it could sell to IBM. In one of Silicon Valley's most enduring legends, Kildall allegedly refused IBM's contract terms for his software, holding out for a better deal. McEwen supposedly played a significant role in the negotiations, according to several accounts.

Gates eventually came up an operating system and persuaded IBM to pay his company a fee for each computer sold with MS-DOS software, eventually turning him into the world's richest man.

By 1983, Kildall had developed a graphical user interface for personal computers. He was forced to alter its look after Apple threatened to sue for copyright infringement. Kildall's software never gained a foothold in the marketplace; two years later, Microsoft introduced Windows.

Digital Research once occupied a stately Victorian at 734 Lighthouse Ave. in Pacific Grove. That building was recently purchased by The Carmel Pine Cone and now houses its production and advertising offices. DR also owned a Victorian across the street.

McEwen and Kildall separated in 1983 and divorced in 1989. He died in 1994 after a fall outside a Monterey restaurant.

In 1989, McEwen purchased the Holman Ranch in Carmel Valley. Built in 1928, the ranch was once a center of Carmel Valley social life, as well as a hideaway for many Hollywood celebrities. McEwen refurbished the ranch, which now hosts weddings, corporate parties and charity events. It also features an equestrian center.

McEwen co-founded the Carmel Valley Angel Project following the floods of 1995. She also served as a volunteer for the Pacific Grove Heritage Society, the Pacific Grove Art Center, the Suicide Prevention Service, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the SPCA of Monterey County and the Pacific Grove Unified School District.

The Holman Ranch hosted a memorial service for McEwen on Feb. 5. She is survived by her daughter, Kristin Kildall, her son Scott Kildall, her mother, Marion Strout, and her brother, Richard Strout.

Loan Scams

Based on an advertisement in the newspaper, a lending company may look as legitimate as your neighborhood bank, but when you call the company and give them, as they request, your social security number, you are often on your way to trouble. They may also send you a loan application which will give them all the information they need to take control of your finances.

The two morals of this story are: (1) Check even the most legitimate-looking company. Call them. Talk to a representative. Ask the Better Business Bureau if the company really exists. And if they're working under the logo of another company – it may be, for example, a Citicorp logo used by a con artist who has nothing to do with Citicorp – call the company and make sure of the legitimacy of the advertised offer. And most important, (2) DO NOT GIVE OUT YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER unless you are completely sure of the legitimacy of the person and company you're giving it to.

A second scam involves a request for an advance fee for certain services surrounding the origination of a loan. You need to be well into the process before a lender can legitimately ask you for money to cover certain services, usually subcontracted – an appraisal fee, for example – and even here, most such fees are included at the close, not in the midst of getting a loan. A request for an advance fee should be a tip-off. Check this person out! For more help call Maureen at 622-2565 and visit her website at www.maureenmason.com

That will be up to his superiors, who are overseeing the guardsmen's outprocessing. Before they can return to civilian life following active service, soldiers must undergo debriefing — a process that typically takes five to 10 days, though the powers-that-be are hoping to push Hanson and his fellow soldiers through in time for their official "separation ceremony" in Fresno Feb. 15, she said.

Hanson, who works for the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, joined the National Guard in 1998 after being away from the Army for 16 years. A trained tank commander, he was called up for active duty and stationed at Camp Roberts following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. He later served a six-month security detail at Monterey Peninsula Airport. In November 2003 he was activated again, leading to a deployment to southern Iraq, where he spent the past year patrolling not in a tank, but in a Humvee.

"He's pretty good — pretty tired, pretty stressed and seriously happy to be on American soil," Annette said Tuesday night after talking to him on the phone from Vandenberg.

Wednesday night, the jet lag hit.

"His readjustment to the time difference — Iraq is 11 hours ahead of us — will take a while," she said. "He was up and ready to go at 3 a.m."

So was she, which made for a long Thursday, but it was "well worth it!" she said.

Disappointed at the inability to greet the soldiers on the tarmac when they landed at Vandenberg, the families of the men who serve in the 1-149th Armor Battalion's C Company will throw a party for them at the Armory in Santa Cruz the Saturday after the Fresno ceremony.

"They deserve a hero's welcome," she said. "The e-mails are flying. We'll do something."

She's been working with veterans groups and contacting chefs she knows in order to "at least put together a feed and fun things for them to do."

Although he's back in the United States, Hanson may have to spend some more time with the Army before he can settle in again at home and at his Carmel job.

Annette hopes he'll at least be free when their teenage children are on spring break in March, so they can take a long-awaited vacation together and perhaps make up for the missed birthdays and wedding anniversary. Kirkwood ski resort at Lake Tahoe donated lift tickets for the military men and their families, offering a tempting respite.

"After where he's been, I think he would be grateful to see some trees and snow," she said.

But she doesn't really care where they go, as long as he's there.

Studied exoticism as character searches for identity

AS CHRISTOPHER Columbus Wong searches for identity in Jeffery Paul Chan's ironic novel, "Eat Everything Before You Die," he tries to invent a family all his own.

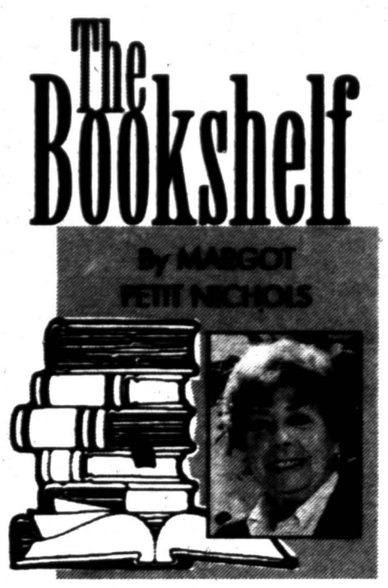
And why not? He's an orphan son, raised in a Chinatown bachelor community. Uncle Lincoln, one of the bachelors, is possibly his father, and that of his gay brother, Peter, a TV chef.

The family Christopher puts together has a unifying link in Auntie, as the mother figure, and the Neon Moon, a restaurant where significant life passages are sanctioned.

Much of the book is set in San Francisco's Chinatown, which Chan paints with a meticulous brush, lending a familiar exoticism that intrigues.

His writing has a leisurely, sensual flow to it that makes the book accessible, and allows one to settle down in a comfortable chair for a good read.

But that isn't all: It deals with the children of Chinese American immigrants as they improvise and even invent themselves in a culture they have come to understand but which is built on layers of their Chinese heritage.



Jeffery Paul Chan is professor of Asian American studies and of English at San Francisco State University. This is his first novel, published by the University of Washington Press Seattle and London. The 297-page softcover retails for $22.50 and is available at Bookworks, 667 Lighthouse Ave., Pacific Grove.

Chan will read from his book and discuss it at 1 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 13. Admission is free. A booksigning follows. For information, call (831) 372-2242.

CARL CHERRY Center for the Arts announced two fellowships from the Bonnie Gartshore Memorial Fund: local historian Julianne Burton-Carvajal and classical singer Norma Faison Mayer. They will each receive fellowships of $500 from the annual award fund. The Gartshore Fund was established to bring the work of Monterey County artists and writers to a wider audience and to further the careers of emerging and under-recognized writers and artists. These are worthy goals. Hats off to Bonnie Gartshore, a great writer, poet and journalist. (Applications for the fellowship are available through the Carl Cherry Center, P.O. Box 863, Carmel, CA 93921. Information: (831) 624-7491.

Robert Sward

Las Vegas university students hone management skills at AT&T Pro-Am

By MARGOT PETIT NICHOLS

FORTY STUDENTS from the University of Nevada are receiving a managerial baptism by fire this week as they take on responsibilities supervising food servers, bartenders and stewards in corporate hospitality tents at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

But these students are not novices; they are highly trained managers and the cream of the crop among 100 applicants from the University of Nevada at Las Vegas' William F. Harrah College of Hotel Administration. To be selected to work with the Pebble Beach Co. in the food and beverage concessions is considered a great honor by the aspiring hospitality industry students.

The UNLV managers oversee the cash concession operations on both Pebble Beach Co. golf courses used for the tournament. According to Andy Nazarechuk, program director of the university's event management team, "Thousands of hot dogs, sodas, chips and a variety of other food items are served each day; coordinating these operations requires the ability to handle high stress situations."

According to Nazarechuk, both the the Pebble Beach Co. and the students benefit by this working partnership.

"Pebble Beach Co. gains motivated, enthusiastic and highly trained managers from UNLV to manage the food and beverage operations on the golf course; UNLV has the opportunity for its best students to gain hands-on management experience."

The program started in 1992 when the university brought 50 UNLV managers to the U.S. Open, and since then, more than 800 students have participated in subsequent national sporting events, such as the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta, Ga.; the Dura Lube 500 NASCAR race in Phoenix, Ariz.; several U.S. Opens and every AT&T golf tournament held at Pebble Beach since 1992. But today, the UNLV managers work only with the Pebble Beach Co.

Pebble Beach Co. derives economic benefits and supports the educational aspect of the program, "seeing it as one way to help the overall hospitality industry by grooming future managers," Nazarechuk said.

Students selected as team leaders work directly with the Pebble Beach managers and are responsible for all aspects of the team. "But faculty play an advisory role," Nazarechuk said, "or coach the students when necessary to help them succeed."

Volunteers who work the concessions look forward each year to working with the UNLV managers. Together they make sure the thousands of spectators who walk the course can get something to eat.

FEATURED AT "Images of Pebble Beach," a new art and photo gallery at The Lodge at Pebble Beach, are photographs of the early years of the Bing Crosby national Pro-Am Championship, other sporting events and celebrities who have visited the renowned resort.

"Bob and Bing at the Crosby" by Julian Graham, and "Crosby Favorite Jack Lemmon" by William Brooks, are but two of the golf photographs, while "Nicky" Hilton and Elizabeth Taylor are shown overlooking the 18th green. For more information, call (831) 622-6538.

"Rhone Style Wines, the Rhone Rangers"
Doug Meador in his Ventana Vineyard planted the first Syrah grapes in Monterey County. His vision of Monterey as a Rhone grape region was well ahead of the other growers. This seminar will explore the blending of the Rhone grapes, Syrah and Grenache Noir and the lovely rich red wines that come from those blends. Red wine lovers will have a great time!

Masters of Food & Wine extravaganza rates eight stars

By MARGOT PETIT NICHOLS

THIS TIME next week, Highlands Inn Park Hyatt Carmel will be aglitter with master chefs, four of whom have a cumulative total of eight Michelin stars — the coveted awards of the culinary world.

Amuse bouche

At this 19th annual Masters of Food & Wine gathering, both Chefs Gerard Boyer and Philippe Legendre have been honored with three Michelin stars. Other star-struck chefs are Angela Hartnett and Andoni Luis Aduriz with one star apiece.

Alice Waters • Chez Panisse, Berkeley

Joining this international who's who of master chefs are five other acclaimed cooks who will show off their kitchen prowess during the three-day culinary event: Rick Bayless, Mark Miller, Bradley Ogden, Charlie Palmer and Alice Waters.

Highlands Inn's team of Executive Chef Mark Ayers, Robert Weakley, executive assistant manager of food and beverage, and Bernabe De Luna, director of wine, are coordinating the many luncheons, dinners and cooking demonstrations. General Manager Andrew Davidson oversees the entire event, which is nearly sold out. JEFFREY JAKE, executive chef of the Lodge at Pebble Beach, created a gourmet pizza especially for the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, a happening which is taking place even as you read this column. It is a clam and garlic pizza, inspired by the original Bing Crosby "Clambake" golf tournament, precursor to the AT&T. It will be baked on a wood-burning oven in an outdoor tent dubbed The Water's Edge because it's in back of the 18th Green, which is, appropriately, at the water's edge.

HOLLY'S LIGHTHOUSE Cafe has taken the place of the longtime Lighthouse Cafe at 602 Lighthouse Ave., Pacific Grove, a favorite with locals for 17 years. Holly Hanmer, who was with The Cottage Restaurant in Carmel-by-the-Sea for a decade, is the new owner. Holly's opened this week after extensive renovation.

"This is something I've always wanted to do," she said. "I do all the roasting here — beef, corned beef, turkey — and I make desserts from scratch. The lemon meringue, tollhouse and Dutch apple pies have sold out every day." Snick, a local artist, painted faux windows on the wall, mimicking the 100-year-old real windows. Pacific Grove views are featured in the murals: The magic carpet of seashore ice plant, Point Pinos and Asilomar Beach. Call (831) 372-7006.

THE WHALER, 635 Cass St., Monterey, another favorite among locals, is offering an early bird special. If you're really an early diner, the special starts at 4:30 p.m., runs through 6:30 Monday through Thursday, and is composed of two courses. For a nominal $13.95, diners are offered either soup or green salad and a choice of English cut of prime rib, salmon filet, lemon herbed chicken or chicken fettuccini. Telephone (831) 373-1933.

WHILE WE'RE on the subject of specials and locals, have you taken advantage of Monterey's Local's Day at the Wharf now every Tuesday and Wednesday? This offer is exclusively for Monterey County residents. A complete lunch or dinner — including soup or salad, choice of five entrées and dessert — costs a mere $9.95. And to make it even more special, two hours of free parking are yours. This remarkable offer is made possible by the Fisherman's Wharf Association and the City of Monterey. Good

ORDINANCE NO. 05-01

AN ORDINANCE ADDING SECTION 6.5 TO ORDINANCE NO. 91-03 RELATING TO ADMINISTRATIVE CITATIONS FOR VIOLATION OF PRETREATMENT OF WASTEWATER PRIOR TO ITS ENTRY INTO THE DISTRICT SEWER SYSTEM

-oOo-

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CARMEL AREA WASTEWATER DISTRICT DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

1. Section 6.5 of Ordinance No. 93-01 is hereby added to read in its entirety:

"6.5 Administrative Citation

Any person who violates any provision of this Ordinance or any provision of any permit issued pursuant to this Ordinance shall be subject to the administrative citation provisions contained in Ordinance 05-02 ."

2. Following adoption, this ordinance shall be published once in a newspaper published in the District.

3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force one (1) week after the date it is published in the newspaper, or February 11, 2005, whichever is later.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Carmel Area Wastewater District duly held on January 27, 2005, by the following vote:

ORDINANCE NO. 05-02

ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING ADMINISTRATIVE FINES AND CITATIONS FOR VIOLATION OF ORDINANCE 91-03

-oOo-

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CARMEL AREA WASTEWATER DISTRICT DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

1. Administrative fines and citations for violation of procedures and controls for pretreatment of wastewater prior to its entry into the District sewer system, as set forth in Ordinance 91-03 or as that Ordinance may be subsequently amended, are hereby adopted as set forth on the attached seven (7) pages attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by this reference.

2. California Government Code Section 53069.4 allows the legislative body of a local agency to make any violation of an ordinance enacted by that local agency subject to an administrative fine or penalty. Section 53069.4 requires that the local agency set forth by ordinance the administrative procedures which shall govern the imposition, enforcement, collection and administrative review by the local agency of those administrative fines and penalties. Those administrative procedures shall provide for a reasonable period of time for a person responsible for a continuing violation to correct or otherwise remedy the violation prior to the imposition of administrative fines or penalties, when the violation pertains to building, plumbing, electrical or other similar structural or zoning issues, that do not create an immediate danger to health or safety.

3. Following adoption, this ordinance shall be published once in a newspaper published in the District.

4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force one (1) week after the date it is published in the newspaper, or February 11, 2005, whichever is later.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Carmel Area Wastewater District duly held on January 27, 2005, by the following vote:

AYES: BOARD MEMBERS: Englander, Kohn, Stevens, Townsend, White
NOES: BOARD MEMBERS: None
ABSENT: BOARD MEMBERS: None

(s) Robert Kohn, President of the Board
ATTEST: Fay A. Webb, Secretary of the Board

(a) The District Board finds that there is a need for an enforcement remedy available to the District for violation of Ordinance 91-03 which does not require the District to file court actions to initiate enforcement. The Board further finds that an appropriate method of enforcement for violations is an administrative citation program as authorized by California Government Code Section 53069.4.

(b) This ordinance provides for administrative citations which are in addition to all other civil legal remedies and which are an alternative to any criminal legal remedies which may be pursued by the District to address any violation of Ordinance 91-03.

(c) Use of the remedies and procedures of this ordinance shall be at the sole discretion of the environmental compliance inspectors and enforcement officials authorized to proceed under this ordinance, and the availability of the remedies and procedures of this ordinance shall not limit or preclude the use of criminal or civil injunctive code enforcement proceedings.

1.2 For the purposes of this ordinance "code enforcement officer" shall mean the District's environmental compliance inspectors or any District employee or agent with the authority to enforce any provisions of Ordinance 91-03.

(a) Whenever a code enforcement officer charged with the enforcement of any provision of Ordinance 91-03 determines that a violation of a provision of the Ordinance has occurred, the code enforcement officer shall have the authority to issue an administrative citation to any person responsible for the violation.

(b) Each administrative citation shall contain the following information:

(1) The date of the violation;

(2) The address or a definite description of the location where the violation occurred;

(3) The section or section of Ordinance 91-03 violated and an abbreviated description of the acts or omissions constituting the violation;

(4) The amount of the fine for the Ordinance violation;

(5) A description of the penalty payment process, including a description of the time within which and the place to which the penalty shall be paid;

(6) A description of the administrative citation review process, including the time within which the administrative citation may be contested and the place from which a request for hearing form to contest the administrative citation may be obtained; and

(7) The name and signature of the citing code enforcement officer.

(c) Prior to the issuance of an administrative citation for a violation of Ordinance 91-03 which does not create an immediate danger to health or safety, the code enforcement officer shall have provided a reasonable period of time not less than five business days to correct or otherwise remedy the violation.

(d) An administrative citation and all other notices required by this Ordinance to be served subsequent to service of a citation may be served either by personal delivery or by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed to a location reasonably calculated to give notice to the responsible party, and shall be deemed effective on the date of personal delivery or when the certified mail is either delivered or delivery is attempted.

If the certified mail receipt is returned unsigned, then service may instead be effected by regular first class mail, postage prepaid, provided that the notice sent by regular mail is not returned by the postal service as undeliverable, and shall be deemed effective on the date five days following deposit in the mail.

Where violation of provisions of Ordinance 91-03 concerning the condition of real property is involved, an administrative citation or subsequent written notices authorized by this Ordinance may be served by certified mail at the address shown on the last equalized county assessment roll.

Where a violation of provisions of Ordinance 91-03 concerning the condition of real property is involved and personal delivery or service by certified mail upon the property owner is unsuccessful, service may be effected alternately or additionally by posing a copy of the order at a conspicuous location on the property which is the subject of the order. Where service of any notice required by this Ordinance is effected in compliance with the requirement of this section and with due process the asserted failure of any person to receive the notice shall not affect the validity of any proceedings taken under this Ordinance.

(a) The amount of administrative fines for violation of Ordinance 91-03 imposed pursuant to this Ordinance shall be set forth in a schedule of administrative fines established by resolution of the District Board.

(b) The schedule of administrative fines shall specify any increased penalties for repeat violation of the same provisions of Ordinance 91-03 by the same person or entity within thirty-six (36) months from the date of an administrative citation.

(c) The schedule of administrative fines shall specify the amount of any late payment charges imposed for the payment of an administrative fine after its due date.

(a) The administrative fine for an administrative citation shall be paid to the District through its revenue collections official within thirty calendar days from the date the administrative citation is served. If a hearing is requested pursuant to Section 1.6, the amount of the administrative fine shall be deposited with the revenue collections official or a notice shall be filed with the revenue collections official that an advance deposit hardship waiver has been requested as required in Section 1.7.

(b) Any administrative citation fine shall be refunded in accordance with Section 1.10 if it is determined, after a hearing, that the person charged in the administrative citation was not responsible for the violation or that there was no violation by the person charged in the administrative citation.

(c) Payment of an administrative fine under this Ordinance shall not bar enforcement proceedings for any continuation or repeated occurrence of any violation of Ordinance 91-03 that is the subject of an administrative citation.

(a) Any recipient of an administrative citation may contest that there was a violation of Ordinance 91-03 or that the contestant is responsible for the violation by completing a request for hearing form and returning it to the revenue collections official within thirty calendar days from the date of service of the administrative citation, together with an advance deposit of the amount of the administrative fine or notice that a request for an advance deposit hardship waiver has been filed pursuant to Section 1.7.

(b) A request for hearing form may be obtained from the revenue collections official.

(c) The person requesting the hearing shall be notified of the time and place set for the hearing at least ten days prior to the date of the hearing.

(d) If the code enforcement officer submits an additional written report concerning the administrative citation to the hearing officer for consideration at the hearing, then a copy of this report shall be served on the person requesting the hearing at least five days prior to the date of the hearing.

(a) Any person who intends to request a hearing to contest an administrative citation and who claims to be financially unable to make the advance deposit of the fine as required in Section 1.6 may file a request for an advance deposit hardship waiver.

(b) The request shall be filed with the finance officer within thirty days following the date of service of the administrative citation.

(c) The requirement of depositing the full amount of the administrative penalty shall be stayed unless or until the finance officer makes a determination not to issue the advance deposit hardship waiver.

(d) The finance officer may waive the requirement of an advance deposit and issue the advance deposit hardship waiver only if the cited party submits to the finance officer a sworn declaration, together with any supporting evidence demonstrating to the satisfaction of the finance officer the person's actual financial inability to deposit the full amount of the fine in advance of the hearing.

(e) If the finance officer determines not to issue an advance deposit hardship waiver, the person shall remit the deposit to the District within ten days of the date of that decision in order to secure the hearing.

(f) The finance officer shall issue a written determination listing the reasons for determining to issue or not issue the advance deposit waiver. The written determination of the finance officer shall be final, subject only to judicial review as provided by law.

(g) The written determination of the finance officer shall be served upon the person who applied for the advance deposit hardship waiver.

The District's general manager shall designate a hearing officer for the administrative citation hearing. The hearing officer may be the general manager or any designee, including but not limited to a subordinate employee or person retained for that purpose, but shall not be the citing code enforcement officer.

(a) No hearing to contest an administrative citation before a hearing officer shall be noticed unless the amount of the administrative fine has been deposited in advance in accordance with Section 1.6 or an advance deposit hardship waiver has been issued in accordance with Section 1.7.

(b) A hearing before the hearing officer shall be set for a date that is not less than fifteen days and not more than sixty days from the date that the request for hearing is filed in accordance with provisions of this Ordinance. The party contesting the administrative citation may request one continuance for any reason, provided that the hearing officer is given the request for continuance at least twenty-four hours in advance of the scheduled hearing and that the deferred hearing shall not be deferred more than ninety days after the request for hearing was made. A request for continuance made less than twenty-four hours before the scheduled hearing may be granted by the hearing officer based upon exigency only.

(c) At the hearing, the party contesting the administrative citation shall be given the opportunity to testify and to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses concerning the administrative citation. That contestant may appear personally or through an attorney. Prehearing discovery is not authorized but subpoena of witnesses and documents shall be permitted as authorized by law. The testimony during the hearing shall be recorded and the materials received into evidence shall be retained by the hearing officer. The hearing officer may conduct the hearing informally, both as to rules of procedure and admission of evidence, in any manner which will provide a fair hearing. (d) The failure of any recipient of an administrative citation to appear at the administrative citation hearing or, in the alternative, to present written or demonstrative evidence shall constitute an admission of the violation by the recipient and an admission that the amount of the administrative fine is appropriate as well as a failure to exhaust administrative remedies that may bar judicial review.

(e) The administrative citation and any additional report submitted by the code enforcement officer shall constitute presumptive evidence of the respective facts contained in those documents.

(f) The hearing officer may continue the hearing and request additional information from the code enforcement officer or the recipient of the administrative citation prior to issuing a written decision.

(1) After considering all the testimony and evidence submitted at the hearing, the hearing officer shall issue a written decision to uphold or cancel the administrative citation and the reasons for that decision. The decision of the hearing officer shall be final upon service on the responsible party, subject only to judicial review as allowed by law.

(b) The hearing officer shall consider any written or oral evidence submitted at the hearing consistent with ascertainment of the facts regarding the violation and compliance with the order.

(c) Within ten (10) days following the conclusion of the hearing, or such other time as the hearing officer may specify, the hearing officer shall make findings and issue a decision regarding:

(1) The existence of the violation;

(2) The extent of compliance with the order.

(d) The hearing officer shall issue written findings on each violation. The finding shall be supported by evidence received at the hearing.

(e) If the hearing officer determines from a preponderance of the evidence that the contestant committed the violation charged in the administrative citation, then so much of the amount of the administrative fine on deposit with the District as is assessed by the hearing officer shall become final (subject only to appellate remedies provided below) and shall become a debt to the District collectable through the processes provided herein.

(f) If the hearing officer determines that the administrative citation should be upheld and the amount of the administrative fine has not been deposited pursuant to an advance deposit hardship waiver, the hearing officer shall set forth in the decision a payment schedule for the administrative fine as well as for payment of any administrative costs assessed by the hearing officer.

(g) If the hearing officer determines that the administrative citation should not be sustained, then the hearing officer shall issue a decision canceling the administrative citation, and if the amount of the administrative fine was deposited with the District, then the District shall promptly refund the amount of the deposited administrative fine, together with interest at the average rate earned on the District's investments for the period of time that the amount was held by the District.

(h) The recipient of the administrative citation shall be served with a copy of the hearing officer's written decision within ten calendar days following its issuance.

(i) The employment, performance evaluation, compensation, and benefits of the hearing officer shall not be directly or indirectly conditioned upon the amount of administrative citation fines or penalties upheld by the hearing officer.

(a) The hearing officer may impose administrative fines in an amount not to exceed the maximum provided in the schedule of administrative fines adopted by Board resolution in effect on the date when the violations occurred.

(b) In determining the amount of the administrative fine, the hearing officer may take any or all of the following factors into consideration:

(1) The duration of the violation;

(2) The frequency, recurrence and number of violations, related or unrelated, by the same violator;

(3) The seriousness of the violation;

(4) The good faith efforts of the violator to come into compliance;

(5) The economic impact of the violation on the community;

(6) Such other factors as justice may require.

(c) Late payment charges shall accrue and be payable in the amount and by the terms specified in the schedule of administrative fines.

(d) Administrative fines sustained by the hearing officer are a debt owed to the District and in addition to all other means of enforcement, if the violation concerns the condition of real property, may be enforced by means of a lien against the real property on which the violation occurred in accordance with Section 1.16.

(a) The hearing officer may assess administrative costs against the violator when the hearing officer determines that a violation has occurred and that compliance was not achieved.

(b) Administrative costs may include any and all costs incurred by the District (both direct and indirect costs) in investigating and commencing administrative proceedings for the violation as well as any and all costs incurred by the District in connection with the hearing before the hearing officer, including but not limited to costs of the code enforcement officer incurred in preparation for the hearing and for participating in the hearing itself and costs of the District itself to conduct the hearing. Failure to pay administrative costs in the amount specified in the administrative officer's decision on or before the date specified in that decision shall be subject to collection and late charges as otherwise provided for administrative fines herein.

Failure to pay the assessed administrative fines and/or administrative costs specified in a hearing officer's decision may be enforced as:

(1) A personal obligation of the violator; and/or

(2) If the violation is in connection with real property, a lien upon the real property in accordance with Section 1.16, which shall remain in effect until all of the administrative penalties, interest, and administrative costs are paid in full.

(a) Any person subject to a decision of the hearing officer sustaining an administrative fine may obtain Board review of the hearing officer's decision by filing a request for review in writing with the secretary of the Board within ten calendar days from the date of service of the written decision of the hearing officer.

(b) Review by the Board shall be limited to the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing. Upon review, the Board may uphold, modify or reverse, in whole or in part, the decision of the hearing officer.

(c) The failure of a recipient of the hearing officer's final decision to request review by the Board shall constitute a failure to exhaust administrative remedies that may bar judicial review.

Any person subject to a final decision of a hearing officer, after Board review, may obtain review of the decision in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of California Government Code 53069.4. The hearing officer's decision shall provide notice of this right of judicial review and the time allowed therefor by law.

The failure of any person to pay the administrative fines assessed by an administrative citation within time specified may result in the enforcement officer referring the matter to the finance officer to file a claim with the small claims court alternately, the District may collect the assessed administrative fines and administrative costs by use of all available legal means, including recordation of a lien pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance.

(a) Whenever the amount of any administrative fine and/or administrative cost imposed pursuant to this Ordinance in connection with real property has not been satisfied in full within ninety days after the administrative fine and/or administrative cost imposition becomes final, unless tolled by a timely request for judicial review pursuant to California Government Code Section 53069.4 or reversed by court order, this obligation may constitute a lien against any real property involved where any violation was determined to concern the condition of that real property.

(b) The lien provided herein shall have no force and effect until recorded with the county recorder. Once recorded, the administrative order shall have the force and effect and priority of a judgment lien governed by the provisions of Section 697.340 of the California Code of Civil Procedure and may be extended as provided in Sections 683.110 through 683.220 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Interest shall accrue on the principal amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied pursuant to law.

(d) Prior to recording any such lien, the finance officer shall prepare and file with the clerk of the Board a report stating the amounts due and owing.

(e) The clerk of the Board shall fix a time, date and place for hearing such report and protests or objections thereto by the Board.

(f) The finance officer shall cause written notice to be served on each property owner whose interest is disclosed by the current county equalized assessment roll not less than ten days prior to the time set for the hearing.

(a) Any person owning a legal or equitable interest in real property proposed to be subject to a lien pursuant to Section 1.16 may file a written protest with the secretary of the Board and/or may protest orally at the Board hearing.

(b) Each written protest or objection must contain a description of the property in which the protesting party has a legal or equitable interest and the grounds of such protest or objection. The grounds for protest or objection, and any evidence of testimony submitted in support or in opposition to the imposition of a lien, shall be confined to whether the amount of any administrative fine and/or administrative cost imposted was satisfied in full within the time allowed by law and/or was successfully challenged by a timely writ of mandate.

(c) The Board, after the hearing, shall adopt a resolution confirming, discharging or modifying the amount of the lien based upon evidence produced at the hearing.

Thirty days following the adoption of a resolution by the Board imposing a lien, the finance officer shall file the same as a judgment lien in the office of the county recorder of Monterey County. The lien may carry such additional administrative charges as set forth by resolution of the Board.

Once payment in full is received by the District for outstanding fines and costs, the finance officer shall either record a notice of satisfaction or provide any property owner or financial institution having a legal or equitable interest in the property with a notice of satisfaction so they may record this notice with the office of the county recorder. Such notice of satisfaction shall cancel the District's lien.

OPINION

Editorial

A small step

AT A community forum this week on the pros and cons of public ownership of water utilities an activist offered her assessment that a desalination plant — no matter who owns it — is not the answer to the Monterey Peninsula's water problems.

"The biggest desal plant in the country is in Tampa Bay, and it's a big failure," said Juliette Beck of Public Citizen. "The filters got clogged and it had to be shut down. Why invest all your money in an unproven technology?"

Instead, she argued that conservation and reclamation would solve our water woes — a boilerplate answer that may hold true in most communities. But not here.

The people of Carmel, Carmel Valley, Pebble Beach, Pacific Grove, Seaside and Monterey already use less water per capita than almost anybody else in the state.

Meanwhile, the company that provides them with the water they do use, Cal-Am, has been ordered by the state to reduce its pumping from the Carmel River by 10,730 acre-feet. That's almost two-thirds of our entire supply — an impossible amount to save by installing low-flow toilets and showerheads. Instead, we need a major water supply, and we need it as soon as possible. But with the red-legged frog and the steelhead trout listed as threatened species by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, building a dam in Carmel Valley has become all but impossible. Therefore, only one option presents itself: desal.

Fortunately, two ambitious and capable entities are working as hard as they can to make the desal option a reality. Cal-Am is studying a site at the Duke power plant in Moss Landing; meanwhile, the Pajaro/Sunny Mesa Community Services District is hard at work on plans for a desal plant across the street from Duke, at the location of an old magnesium brick plant now owned by Nader Agha.

It is too soon for the public or water officials to make up their minds which plant should get their support. But that uncertainty about the means should in no way be construed as uncertainty about the end. A recent public opinion poll commissioned by Cal-Am showed overwhelming support for a new desal plant — but that's not as important as the results of the last two water elections, which unmistakably demonstrated the public's demand for a reliable water supply that's big enough to take care of everyone's basic human needs.

Beck was right about one thing: The desal plant has to work. And for that to happen, a pilot plant — basically a couple of trailers with scientists working inside — has to be built first, to test the technology that will be used on a large scale in the operational plant.

Fortunately, some political roadblocks that stood in the way of Cal-Am's pilot plant have been removed. According to officials at Pajaro/Sunny Mesa, their pilot plant will also be operating soon. That's very good news. With all the environmental and regulatory hurdles to be overcome, getting a desal plant online will probably take at least 10 years. Given that, it's never too early to make a little progress.

New revenue 'huge'

Dear Editor,

I support the initiative to increase Carmel's transient occupancy tax from 10 percent to 12 percent. As a longtime resident who loves our village, I support this effort to balance the city's budget. A 2 percentage point increase equates to $700,000 annually in additional revenue. That's huge! How can we turn our backs on that, given our financial predicament? Ask a friend to support the initiative, too.

Daniel Banks, Carmel

New revenue may disappear

Dear Editor,

Is there justice in adding 20 percent to the hotel tax purporting that this will bring a great increase to the coffers of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea? The increase in the city's revenue would be just 7 percent, based on current occupancy rates. Realistically, a decrease is possible because inns and motels in neighboring cities would have lower overall prices, and today's visitors continue to seek the best value for their money. If we lose visitors in the future, the 7 percent gain may simply disappear, leaving us with a higher tax rate for tourists and zero gains for the city budget.

The proposed ballot measure also restricts the use of the additional revenue and fails to include a sunset clause — basic indicators of bad legislation. And, in the final analysis, it limits the city's ability to make well informed budget decisions.

Please join me in casting a No vote in the April 5 special election.

Elinor Laiolo, Carmel

Fix the streets

Dear Editor,

As a former resident of Carmel, I was reluctant to weigh in on the proposed hotel tax increase until I thought about the rough condition of the city's streets. Whenever I visit Carmel, I consciously plan my route to include the smoother streets, even if I have to go out of my way to avoid the jarring pot holes and rough patches.

When I called to find out why the streets haven't been attended to, there was no one to answer the phone at the public works department. No money for staff; no money for street workers. Need I say more?

If Carmelites vote yes on the proposed hotel tax increase, hopefully city hall will take some of that revenue to repair the streets. They won't have an excuse not to.

ADA complaints 'misinformed'

Dear Editor,

I am an attorney, disabled, and from 2000 to 2004, served as a member of the U.S. Access Board, which issues the guidelines on how to make buildings comply with the ADA. I have no sympathy for disabled persons who claim injury when none occurred and no sympathy for lawyers who file lawsuits on their behalf. However, your reporting is misinformed and your anger directed at Congressman Farr and the ADA is misplaced.

1. The bogus lawsuits filed by a few misguided disabled persons are seeking damages under state law. This is not a federal law problem that can be solved by Congressman Farr.

2. You suggest a 90-day period prior to a lawsuit for a business to comply with ADA before a lawsuit could be filed. Setting aside the fact that the law has been in effect for almost 15 years, which really should be enough time to comply, the reality is that if a business is sued in federal court, it can comply at any time up until trial and have the case dismissed without an award of damages or attorney's fees. Thus, a 90-day "cure" period is unnecessary.

3. You also suggest that the ADA be amended so that business owners have an "inexpensive and legally binding way to find out if they are in compliance." The only way that can be done on a federal basis is for the federal government to hire tens of thousands of ADA compliance officers to inspect every building in the country. This is a surprising recommendation from someone who repeatedly rails against the federal government "colossus." While the disability community would wholeheartedly support this, there is no way the Bush administration would even allow a vote on such a proposal.

4. In your recent editorial, and in many prior ones, you continually assert that the ADA is "clear as mud" and business owners don't know how to comply. This is simply not true. Here are the facts: The ADA is very specific for newly constructed buildings that were first occupied after 1992. It is also very specific for that portion of buildings altered or remodeled after 1991. For older buildings that don't fit into the above categories, a business should do an accessibility audit to determine where the building is not in compliance with the new construction standards. It then must make those modifications that are "easily accomplished and able to be carried out without much difficulty or expense." For businesses with fewer than 30 full-time employees, the government pays half the cost with a tax credit. The government website, www.ada.gov, contains helpful guidelines as to how to conduct an accessibility audit and how to prioritize compliance measures.

Instead of directing criticism at Congressman Farr and the ADA, here are some positive steps that could be taken.

■ The Pine Cone, the chamber of commerce and the city council could sponsor a workshop on ADA compliance by an accessibility expert. If small businesses don't know how to comply, as you assert, hold a workshop so they can find out how to comply.

■ In San Luis Obisbo County, several cities streamlined the process and waived fees for any permits to do accessibility upgrades. Why can't the cities in Monterey County do the same?

■ Small businesses could create a common fund to hire an attorney specializing in defending ADA cases. There is no reason for businesses to pay a penny to settle these cases that are in federal court. All they need to do is comply and have the case dismissed. But they need an experienced attorney who has done this before and can do it again.

■ File a complaint with the State Bar Association against attorneys who bring lawsuits with allegations they know to be untrue, e.g., filing separate complaints alleging the exact same injury at different locations on the same day.

Finally, your characterization of the ADA as an "infamous federal law" is offensive and demeaning to the disabled community. I challenge you to get in a wheelchair for a week and see how many places open to the public in Monterey County you can't get into, and then maybe you will understand why President George H. W. Bush called the ADA one of the finest achievements of his presidency.

A Valentine Wish:

On November 18th, a gentleman met two beautiful and friendly ladies from Connecticut at the Tuesday Morning store in Saratoga. One of the ladies had just moved to Carmel after losing her house to a hurricane disaster. The gentleman feels very bad that he did not offer his friendship and would like to meet the ladies again.

Charging tour buses for parking = bad business?

By MARY BROWNFIELD

CHARGING BUSES to park on Junipero Street could cause tour companies to drop off and pick up passengers rather than park — increasing traffic hazards and adding wear and tear to city streets — or worse yet, to not come at all, according to former Plaza Cafe owner Kent Spilfogel, a plaza tenant for many years who shared his concerns with the Carmel City Council last Tuesday.

"Many buses are already talking about not coming to Carmel," he said, which could cut business license fees, sales tax and TOT income, as some tour companies also arrange hotel stays.

"I have a huge list of reasons why we shouldn't do it," he said.

If buses pick up and drop off passengers but don't park in town, city streets could suffer more damage, he said, as the buses make an extra trip to retrieve passengers.

And if they decided to pay the hourly fees, but cut their stays short to keep the expense to a minimum, visitors won't have as much opportunity to spend money while exploring downtown.

Furthermore, if Carmel gets a reputation of being unfriendly toward travelers, they may stop coming altogether, he said.

Spilfogel said he led the opposition to charging tour bus operators to park more than a decade ago, when the city council voted to levy the fees and then unanimously overturned its decision after numerous Carmel Plaza merchants said the policy would cost them and the city money.

Will buses, such as these leaving Pebble Beach Thursday, avoid downtown Carmel if they have to pay for parking? One businessman says the answer is yes.

While no opposition arose during the current council's multiple discussions and eventual decision to raise revenues by charging tour buses to park — including discussions on ordering the parking meters, signing a contract with National Parking & Valet to operate them, and changing the city's code to allow the charges — Spilfogel told The Pine Cone he had made several phone calls to city administrator Rich Guillen conveying his concerns.

"I feel really upset about the situation," he said.

Following his comments Feb. 1, Mayor Sue McCloud said the city contacted some tour bus operators and learned the fees would not dissuade them from parking downtown.

"I received two phone calls on this issue — not many," Guillen added.

CONDOS

hold nine totaling 10,329 square feet.

"They don't look like the typical condominium housing you see in Carmel," builder Chris Tescher said of the proposed two-story homes designed by architect Eric Miller. They vary in size from 1,595 square feet to 1,868 square feet, and two share a wall.

Miller described them as a Spanish stone house, California craftsman, storybook, and board and batt with a slate roof. The condo on Mountain View would include the opening to the eight-space underground garage, which would keep cars off of crowded Torres Street.

The only historic building on the site — located at Torres and Mountain View — would remain intact, and the area at Ocean and Mountain View would be dedicated open space.

Conroy said the proposed buildings "are much taller than the existing Forest Lodge," but they apparently would not obstruct any significant views, and no neighbors raised privacy concerns.

No members of the public spoke at the hearing.

Although he said the condos would be larger than most Carmel homes and could create a "visual impact that's very negative," commissioner Alan Hewer suggested splitting them to accommodate even more families.

Tescher responded that more people would create more traffic — one of the neighbors' primary concerns.

Commissioner Robin Wilson called the proposal "a splendid use of this chunk of land," and said Conroy's recommendations — reducing wall offsets and simplifying roof lines, dropping plate height to cut mass and bulk, setting the maximum height at 24 feet and keeping them to two stories — should be heeded.

Miller told the commission his plans could comply with the staff report's recommendations and said the homes would fit well with the neighborhood.

Wilson made a motion to accept the preliminary design concept and direct staff to draft the specific plan. In addition to staff's recommendations, he requested that if the two large oaks being relocated to accommodate the parking garage die, they should be replaced with other large trees. With Ken Talmage and Julie Culver absent, the commission voted 3-0 in favor.

After the plan is drafted, the historic resources board and the forest and beach commission, as well as the planning commission, will review it and then forward it to the city council. The plan must also be approved by the California Coastal Commission.

heard the barking and followed the sound to a residence on Monte Verde Street. The owners were not home, so a courtesy note was left with a request to call the station upon return.

Carmel-by-the-Sea: At 0622 hours, engine was dispatched to a fire alarm activation at La Playa Hotel. Upon arrival, found an accidental activation due to cooking smoke. Area ventilated and alarm reset.

Carmel-by-the-Sea: At 0707 hours, engine and ambulance were dispatched to a medical emergency on Mission Street. Upon arrival, found an elderly female complaining of hip pain but no trauma. Patient evaluated, loaded and transported to CHOMP by ambulance.

Carmel-by-the-Sea: Engine, battalion chief and ambulance responded to a reported structure fire at Dolores and 13th. On scene, investigated and found a construction crew conducting a remodel of the residence had torn loose some of the home's electrical wiring while attempting to remove a framed wall, causing a short in the wall's wiring. The electrical main was shut off and the supervisor advised not to restore power until repairs could be made by an electrician.

Carmel-by-the-Sea: On-duty crews received a walk-in report from a waiter at a Sixth Avenue restaurant of a non-emergency, non-medical situation at the restaurant, where a patron "just wanted to be checked out." Paramedic responded to the scene on foot and radioed back for the ambulance and additional support. Engine on scene. Firefighters assisted ambulance crew with patient report information and loading for a 61-year-old female with hypertension and hyperventilation. Patient transported to CHOMP.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE
of RANDLL EMORY DAVIS
Case Number MP 17472

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of RANDALL EMORY DAVIS, aka RANDALL E. DAVIS, aka RANDALL DAVIS.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by GORDON LUTES in the Superior Court of California, County of MONTEREY.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that GORDON LUTES be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Feb. 18, 2005 at 10:30 a.m., Dept.: 17, in the Superior Court of California, County of Monterey, 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey, CA 93940.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code section 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA
CITY COUNCIL

ORDINANCE NO. 2004-07

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA AMENDING TITLE 10, SECTION 10.32.080 OF THE CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA MUNICIPAL CODE BY ADDING SUB-SECTION (L) REGULATING BEACH PARKING RESTRICTIONS ON SCENIC ROAD BETWEEN EIGHTH AND SANTA LUCIA AVENUES AND AT OCEAN AVENUE/DEL MAR PARKING LOT WEST OF SAN ANTONIO; SECTION (M) REGULATING PARKING TIME AT THE NORTH SUNSET CENTER PARKING LOT; AND (N) REGULATING PARKING TIME AT THE DESIGNATED TOUR BUS ZONE ON JUNIPERO BETWEEN 7TH AND OCEAN AVENUE

WHEREAS, on October 14, 2004, the California Coastal Commission certified the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea Local Coastal Plan (LCP), which reestablished the overlay of Community Plan Districts under Division III - Chapter 17.20.20 M; and

WHEREAS, provisions of the LCP provide for parking regulations and restrictions on Scenic Road or in the Ocean Avenue/Del Mar Parking Lot from midnight until 5:00 a.m. without a City resident's parking permit; and

WHEREAS, in June 2004, the City Council authorized, as a new revenue program, the Pay & Display Parking Program for both the north Sunset Center parking lot and the tour bus parking area on Junipero between 7th and Ocean; and

WHEREAS, in order for the Police Department to enforce the time limits associated with the beach parking restrictions and regulations and the pay and display program, provisions must be made to allow the Department to enforce violations via parking citations(s).

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

1. Add to Title 10, Chapter 10.32.080 of the Municipal Code as follows: sub-section (L) stating herein "Parking on Scenic Road or in the Ocean Avenue/del Mar Parking Lot. It is unlawful to park on Scenic Road between Eighth Avenue and Santa Lucia Avenue or in the Ocean Avenue/Del Mar Parking Lot west of San Antonio from midnight until 5:00 a.m. without a City resident's parking permit. (MC 17.20.20.M)".

2. Add to Title 10, Chapter 10.32.080 of the Municipal Code as follows: sub-section (M) stating herein "Parking at the North Sunset Center parking lot: It is unlawful for any person to park their vehicle without first obtaining a paid parking coupon for a designated time limit and displaying said coupon in plain view on the driver's side dash. Any vehicles found parked over the specified time limit or not displaying a valid parking coupon will be cited under this section."

3. Add to Title 10, Chapter 10.32.080 of the Municipal Code as follows: sub-section (N) stating herein "Parking at the Designated Tour Bus Zone along Junipero between 7th and Ocean Avenue. It is unlawful for any person to park a tour bus or any other vehicle for hire, designed, used, or maintained for carrying more than 10 persons, without first obtaining a paid parking coupon for a designated time limit and displaying said coupon in plain view on the driver's side dash. Any tour bus, or vehicle for hire, parked beyond the specified time limit or not displaying a valid parking coupon will be cited under this section. Any other vehicle parked in this tour bus zone that does not meet the above criteria will be cited and/or towed at the owner's expense when appropriate signs are posted.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA THIS 4th day of January 2005.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Design Review Board of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea will conduct a public hearing in the City Hall Council Chambers, located on the east side of Monte Verde between Ocean and Seventh Avenues, on Wednesday, February 23, 2005. The public hearings will be opened at 4:30 p.m. or as soon thereafter as possible. Following a staff report on the project, the applicant and all interested members of the public will be allowed to speak or offer written testimony. Decisions to approve or deny the project may be appealed to the City Council by filing a written notice of appeal with the office of the City Clerk within ten (10) working days following the date of action by the Design Review Board and paying a $265.00 appeal fee as established by the City Council. For those projects listed as appealable to the California Coastal Commission, appeals may be filed directly with the Coastal Commission for no fee, by filing a written notice of appeal with the Coastal Commission's Central Coast office in Santa Cruz. Such appeals must be filed within ten working days of the Coastal Commission's receipt of the City's Final Local Action Notice.

If you challenge the nature of the proposed action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the Design Review Board or the City Council at, or prior to, the public hearing.

Report of a solicitor at a Ladera Drive residence. Upon arrival, contacted the subject, who was selling products by Hy-Pro Cleaners out of Texas. The company is not a nonprofit organization and is therefore not allowed to solicit within the city limits. The subject was interviewed in the field and released. He was going to Rio and Ladera to await his boss to pick him up.

Carmel-by-the-Sea: Dolores Street resident reported an unauthorized fire at her residence. A chimney sweeper came today and noted that it appeared there had been a chimney fire, but he was unable to determine when the fire occurred. The resident never mentioned that the realty company had told her about a past chimney fire until the officer asked her about it. Since the realty company had already told her about the fire, and the chimney sweeper was unable to determine when the fire occurred, the call was unfounded. She then described that sometime last week she heard a loud tapping noise on the roof and then found the spark arrestor from the chimney was in her yard. She believed someone removed it. Checking the yard, it was found that it would be extremely difficult to access the roof without a ladder.

Carmel-by-the-Sea: Female reported the loss of her cellular telephone in the area of her residence. It's a Nokia cellular phone with service through Verizon Wireless. Lost property report required by Verizon for insurance purposes.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

LOCAL AGENCY FORMATION COMMISSION OF MONTEREY COUNTY

PURSUANT TO Government Code Section 56660, notice is hereby given that the Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO) of Monterey County will consider the following:

The proposed "Carmel Valley Fire Protection District Reorganization" (LAFCO file 04-04) would detach territory from a portion of the existing Carmel Valley Fire Protection District, form a new Fire Protection District, establish a Sphere of Influence for the new district and amend the Sphere of Influence of the existing district.

The present Carmel Valley Fire Protection District was created in 2000 by the consolidation of the Mid-Carmel Valley Fire Protection District (western portion of the valley) and the previous Carmel Valley Fire Protection District (eastern portion of the valley), with several subsequent annexations. The area proposed for detachment and formation is the eastern portion of the consolidated district. The boundaries of the area to be detached are the boundaries of the Carmel Valley Fire Protection District as they existed prior to consolidation, plus additional territory (Berta Ranch) that was recently annexed to the consolidated district.

The proposal is statutorily exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines pursuant to Section 15270 (a), which states that CEQA does not apply to projects which a public agency rejects or disapproves.

The public hearing will be held on Monday, February 28, 2005 at 4:00 p.m. in the Board of Supervisors Chambers, Monterey County Courthouse, 240 Church Street, Salinas, California. All persons wishing to make presentations for or against the proposal will be heard. Information on the proposal is on file at the LAFCO office and may be examined by interested persons.

If a person or group contributes or expends $1,000 or more in support of or in opposition to a proposal before LAFCO, those contributions and expenditures must be disclosed. Additional information may be obtained at the County of Monterey Elections Department, 1370 South Main Street, Suite B, Salinas, CA 93901, phone number (831) 755-5085.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

ANY HOUSE. ANYTIME. ANYWHERE.

SOUTH COAST

ROCKY POINT RETREAT! Just 12 short miles from Carmel, this beautiful 3-bedroom, 2-bath home awaits to calm and inspire with sweeping views of rugged coast, crashing surf and sea beyond. A stunning retreat on five ocean-view acres is entered through gates and tree-lined drive. $2,450,000.

CARMEL HIGHLANDS

CALIFORNIA FLAIR! Understanding the balance of detail and space, this striking new 4-bedroom, 3-1/2-bath home was built with many unique touches: hand-crafted entry door, spiral staircase with glass-sculptured dome, and master bedroom sanctuary with stunning ocean views. $5,950,000.

ARTIST'S RETREAT! This ocean-view home and artist's studio/guesthouse are serenely sited with most rooms capturing views of forest & sea. Three bedrooms, 2-1/2-baths including the master suite with office, gated entry, parquet floors, Dutch doors, patio and decks. $2,240,000.

ON THE EDGE AT OTTER COVE! "El Sueno," one of the first sites developed at Otter Cove has been beautifully expanded to 4500 sq. ft. for oceanfront living and entertaining. This marvelous 4-bedroom, 4-bath home on 1.14 acres, reflects the early design by Mark Mills. $7,750,000.

CASA DE BELLEZA VISTA! A landmark estate home on 3.5 acres is one of the finest ocean view homes on the Peninsula! A glorious old-world 4450 sq. ft., 4-bedroom, 4-1/2-bath Mediterranean that has been meticulously remodeled to today's standards with the finest of finishes. $6,900,000.

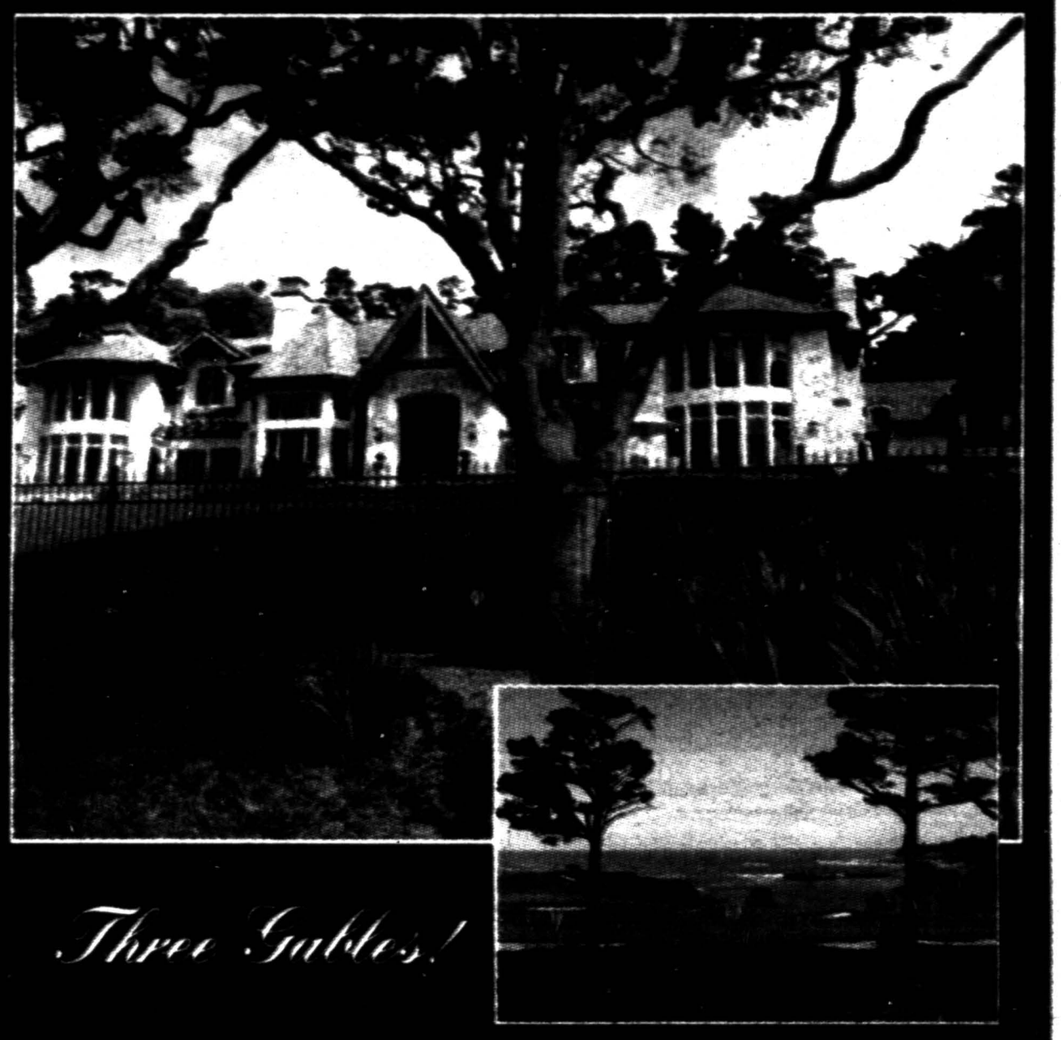
CARMEL

"CASA CADENZA"! Located across from Forest Hill Park this solid, larger 3-bedroom, 3-bath home is a short walk to shops. City approved plans submitted for permit. Ideal for second home or project. $1,295,000.

CARMEL RETREAT! Steps-to-beach-and-town cottage oozes charm and style with ocean view, fabulous "published" gardens, large lot, 4 bedrooms, and 4 baths. Includes dynamite, separate 2-room apartment. $3,495,000.

Pebble Beach...

home to the world-renowned golf courses



Three Gables!

Commanding the fourteenth fairway of the Pebble Beach Golf Links, with views of Stillwater Cove, Pt. Lobos and the blue Pacific, is this magnificent new 11,300 sq. ft. 5-bedroom estate. From its grand baronial entrance to its two spacious family rooms, ocean-view gourmet kitchen, "Paramount Theater" in miniature media room, luxurious master suite, and separate guesthouse, this estate has it all. Just a stroll from The Lodge, this might be the finest home in Pebble Beach. $29,900,000.

GRACIOUS GATED ESTATE! Enter the wrought-iron gates of this restored early California-style estate built in 1928. With 5 bedrooms, 5 renovated baths, outdoor fireplace, lots of terraces, and magnificent gardens. Ocean view from upstairs sundeck. $5,995,000.

ABIDING GRACE! Mediterranean in coveted Carmel Point... bits of the 1930's original - carved beams, curving stairs, wrought iron balustrade - complemented by subtle, exquisite "now" choices... all upstaged by white-water view of Stewarts Cove. Three bedrooms, 3-1/2 baths. $5,550,000.

CARMEL VALLEY

ROBLES DEL RIO GEM! A fabulous contemporary home with incredible valley views from a huge sunny deck seemingly suspended above the village. Amid the clean lines and lofty ceilings are 2 bedrooms, 2 baths, fireplace in the spacious living room, and two-car garage. $955,000.

SUNSHINE TO SHARE! On the sunny side of Mid-Carmel Valley with magnificent views of the mountains, this ranch-style 4-bedroom, 3-bath home is a winner. Family room/kitchen combo, separate guest quarters, park-like gardens, and solar collection panels. $1,200,000.

MONTEREY

SKYLINE FOREST! Space and livability is yours in this 4-bedroom, 3-1/2-bath, 2850 sq. ft. home on a cul-de-sac in a park-like setting. Also a spacious family room with fireplace and forest-view deck, and 3 additional decks. Quaint playhouse in a spacious yard. $1,050,000.

PANORAMIC BAY VIEWS! Have your own 2600 sq. ft. "penthouse" atop this four-unit income property with cathedral ceilings, full-length balcony, and media room with walk-in bar. Totaling over 5250 sq. ft. including the other 3 units: a 2-bedroom unit and 2 additional deluxe 1-bedroom units. $1,995,000.

SPANISH COLONIAL ESTATE! This magnificent Flagg Hill estate overlooks all of Monterey Bay. This property has undergone a major restoration enhancing its grandeur. With 5 bedrooms, 5 full and 2 half baths, this is one of the finest estate properties in Monterey. $7,795,000.

PEBBLE BEACH

PEBBLE BEACH AT ITS FINEST! This spectacular ocean view, gated 6-bedroom, 5+ bath Mediterranean is within walking distance to The Lodge. It offers a generous 11,500 sq. ft. of living space on approximately 1.7 landscaped acres. Office exclusive. $10,900,000.

BOUGAINVILLEA & VIEWS! Walk to Spanish Bay, beaches and Point Joe from this contemporary 4-bedroom, 2-1/2-bath ranch home with high ceilings and skylight windows. Family room overlooks garden & peeks of the sea. Filtered white-water views. $1,595,000.

BELLA VISTA! Overlooking Carmel Bay is a Mediterranean masterpiece with an 8,510 sq. ft. main residence, 980 sq. ft. guest house, separate caretakers quarters, all private on 3 landscaped acres. Make no mistake; this is a magnificent estate... the finest display in Pebble Beach. $22,000,000.

ON THE GOLF COURSE! On the newly-designed MPCC Shore Course 2nd Hole, this 3600 sq. ft. 4-bedroom, 3-1/2-bath, ocean-view home is loaded with special features. The floor plan includes a two-story foyer, large family room and country kitchen opening out to a wrap-around deck. $2,495,000.

"CHAPPELLET ESTATE!" A rare offering on approximately 2.7 acres, the Chappellet Estate is prestigiously located near The Lodge, with stunning golf links and Carmel Bay views. Built on their own cove, the 4-bedroom, 4-bath main house and 2-bedroom, 2-bath guesthouse, offer crashing surf & ,ocean views. $36,000,000.

THE BEST AT SPANISH BAY! Superbly located with commanding tee-to-green views of the 12th hole and ocean vistas. This largest Phase III Model offers an oversized garden courtyard, 4 bedrooms, 4-1/2 baths, 2 bonus rooms, and an incomparable cook's kitchen. $2,795,000.

TICKET INFORMATION

Most attendees buy their tickets well in advance, including high rollers who pay up to $1,600 for admission to all tournament events and the exclusive Champions Club adjacent to the 15th green. But there are still plenty of options:

Partners Package • $330

- 2 season badges
- 2 golf caps
- 2 souvenir programs, a tournament poster, special logo golf balls, and a discount coupon for AT&T merchandise

Season Badge • $150

- Entitles holder entrance to all rounds of the tournament at all three courses.

Daily Ticket

- $60 for tournament rounds
- 12 and under admitted free if accompanied by an adult

Where to buy: Online at www.attpbgolf.com. Daily tickets will also be sold at the Pacific Grove admission trailer (17 Mile Drive at the P.G. Gate) and at the CSUMB parking area (follow signs from Highway 1 exit to CSUMB, approximately 10 miles north of Pebble Beach). Tickets are limited and subject to prior sale.

Parking: During tournament rounds, complimentary spectator parking is available on the CSUMB campus at the former Fort Ord, about 10 miles north of Pebble Beach on Highway 1, with frequent shuttle busses to deliver spectators to the competition courses, where other shuttle busses will also take them between courses. Handicapped parking is available throughout the practice and tournament rounds inside Pebble Beach.

Shuttles

There are also convenient shuttle busses available from Carmel, Pacific Grove and Monterey to the pro-am tournament.

The Carmel Chamber of Commerce will have four shuttle buses running from 6:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. through Sunday, Feb. 13. The downtown route will stop at several pickup and drop-off spots in Carmel, including at Ocean and Junipero in front of Carmel Plaza and on the east side of the Pine Inn on Lincoln Street between Sixth and Ocean avenues, every 20 minutes.

The outer route, which includes the community church, will leave there at 8 and 10 a.m. and depart the Pebble Beach Equestrian Center at 2 and 4 p.m. to return to the church Thursday through Saturday. The Carmel Valley shuttle service will not be available on Sunday.

To make the ride more enjoyable, volunteers will be on the buses to share local color and discuss Carmel's past and present.

Passes run $7 per day and tickets may be purchased at the chamber office on the west side of San Carlos Street between Fifth and Sixth avenues, at Carmel inns, at the Carmel Plaza shuttle stop and on the busses.

People parking their cars in town may do so for free in the city-owned Vista Lobos lot, located on Third Avenue between Torres and Junipero. Paid parking is also available at the Sunset Center lot on Eighth Avenue between Mission and San Carlos, and in the Carmel Plaza garage on Mission between Ocean and Seventh.

Golf fans in Pacific Grove and Monterey won't be left out, as shuttles will also run from those cities Thursday through Sunday.

The Pacific Grove shuttle will pick up and drop off passengers at the Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History at Fountain and Forest every 15 minutes between 6:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. Tickets are available at the P.G. Chamber office located near the museum at Forest and Central and cost $5 per day or $15 for all four days. For more information, call the Pacific Grove Chamber at (831) 373-3304.

The Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce trolleys, which cost $5 per day, will pick up and drop off passengers at the Cannery Row Garage and at Portola Plaza at the foot of Alvarado Street in downtown Monterey, both of which have ample parking.

Monterey trolley tickets can be purchased online at www.mpcc.com, at the chamber office at 380 Alvarado St. in downtown Monterey or by phone at (831) 648-5360.

And remember: Though the pros are playing for a purse of more than $5 million, the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am is a charity event which — thanks to corporate sponsors, spectators, volunteers and celebrities who donate their time and amateur players who pay handsomely to participate — has raised in excess of $46 million for hundreds of local non-profits. The Monterey Peninsula Foundation (Clint Eastwood, chairman, Ollie Nutt, executive director) hosts the pro-am, as well as several other charity events throughout the year. For more information, go to www.montereypeninsulafoundation.org. ❍

Star sighting is a fascinating component of the AT&T. The tournament affords many chances to observe celebrated figures from the worlds of sports, entertainment, business and politics. Witness TV funnyman Ray Romano traveling the greens.

Vijay Singh defends Pro-Am title after record-breaking year

By LAITH AGHA

THE 2005 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am brings a magical year full circle for Vijay Singh. Long playing in the shadow of the biggest star in the sports world — Tiger Woods — Singh headed into the 2004 PGA season with his sites on something Tiger had long held. He wasn't going to wrestle away any of Tiger's lucrative endorsement deals, and there was really no chance that he would supplant him as the most famous golf pro. However, Singh was in position to take over as the number-one ranked player in the world. All he would have to do is play lights out for the whole year, and hope that Woods' laid-back schedule wouldn't change.

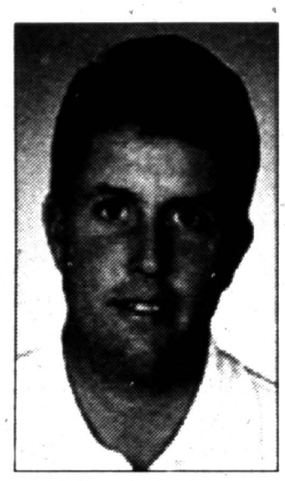
Tiger had held the top ranking in golf for a record 264 consecutive weeks — a span of more than five years. But his game had been slipping as he'd played in fewer tournaments while pursuing other ventures — such as marriage (much to the chagrin of his father).

Woods' fall from the top came over Labor Day Weekend, when Singh took the Deutsche Bank Championship — the first of three consecutive victories — giving him the points to pass Woods on the PGA Tour's official rankings.



Phil Mickelson

Singh ended Woods' streak during a record-breaking year of his own, earning more money ($10,905,166) than any pro in a single year. His nine tournament wins also tied for the fifth-most in a year. Tiger was the last to win nine, in 2000.

Already with a win on the 2005 Tour — The Sony Open — Singh returns to Pebble Beach for his first title defense of the year, after sweeping to a victory in last year's AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. This year, the AT&T defending champion will be facing off against several golfers who are striving to build on some notable successes of their own. But Woods will not be one of them.

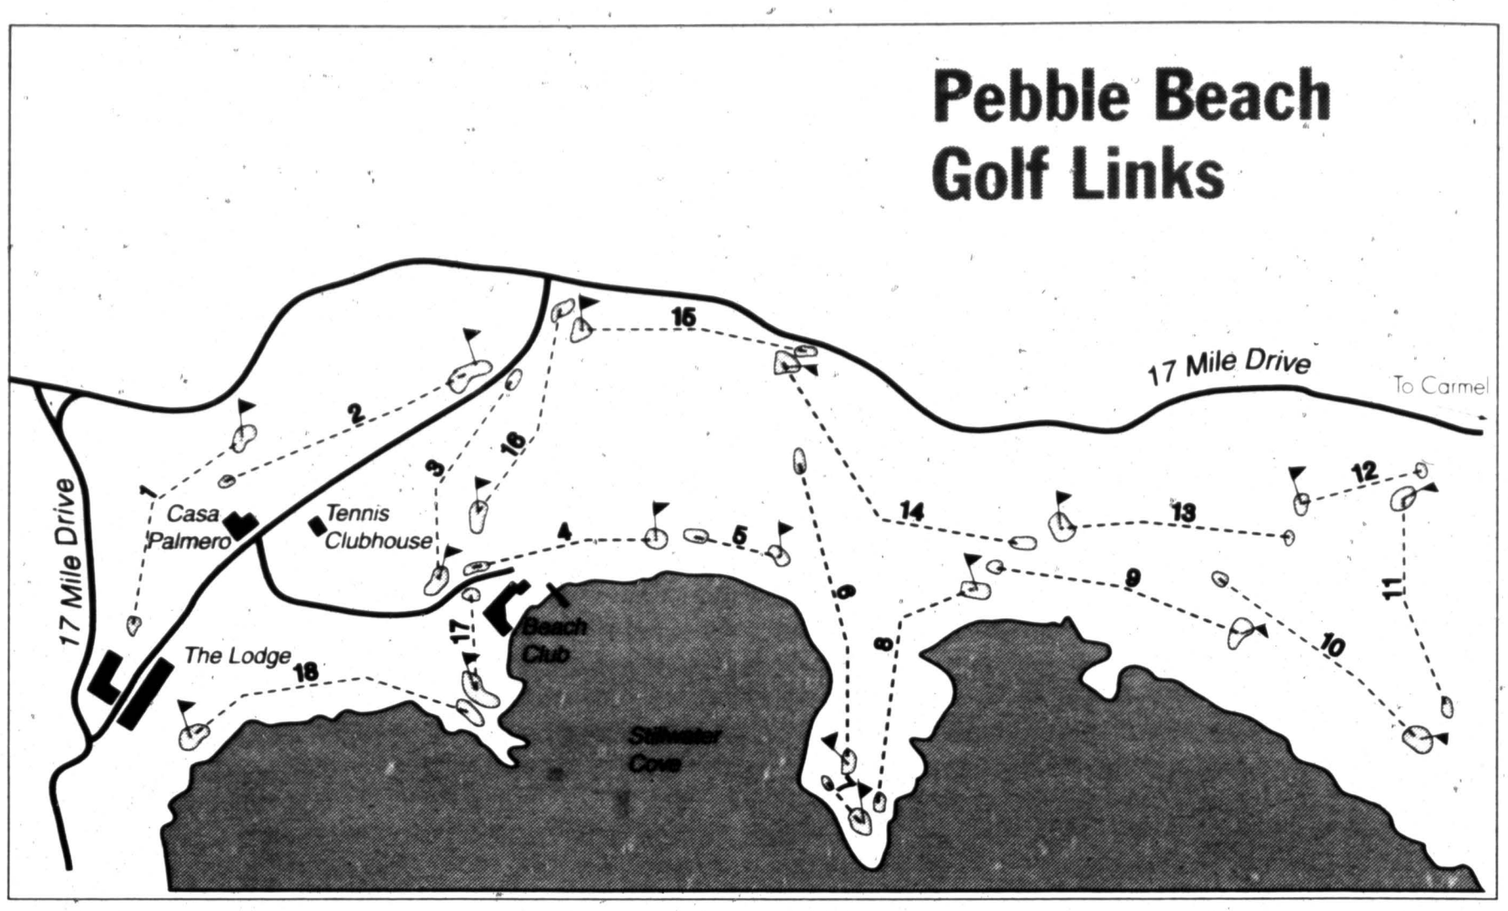
Practically forgotten in Singh's amazing run in 2004 was the career year of Phil Mickelson, who had long been regarded as the best player never to win a Major.

The Boston Red Sox losing string — before they won the World Series last October — may have had more cosmic significance, but Mickelson's drought was spoken of with similar desperation in the golf world. He finally replaced the monkey on his back with a green jacket, taking the Masters at Augusta.

"Lefty," as he is aptly known, started 2004 with a flurry, finishing in the Top 10 in 10 of his first 11 tournaments, including a third place finish at the AT&T. He contended in two other majors — the U.S. Open and the British Open — but was otherwise unspectacular in the second half of the year while being overshadowed by Singh.

Mickelson did manage to have the last laugh, however, when he shot a 59 to run away with the PGA Grand Slam of Golf in late November. Since the Grand Slam isn't an official event, his score is not in the record books. It is recognized, however, as one of only five rounds of 59 ever recorded in competitive play.

Although he has gotten off to a slow start in 2005, Mickelson remains the fifth ranked player in the world. Davis Love III and Mike Weir are the two other golfers ranked in the Top 10 who will be in Pebble Beach.



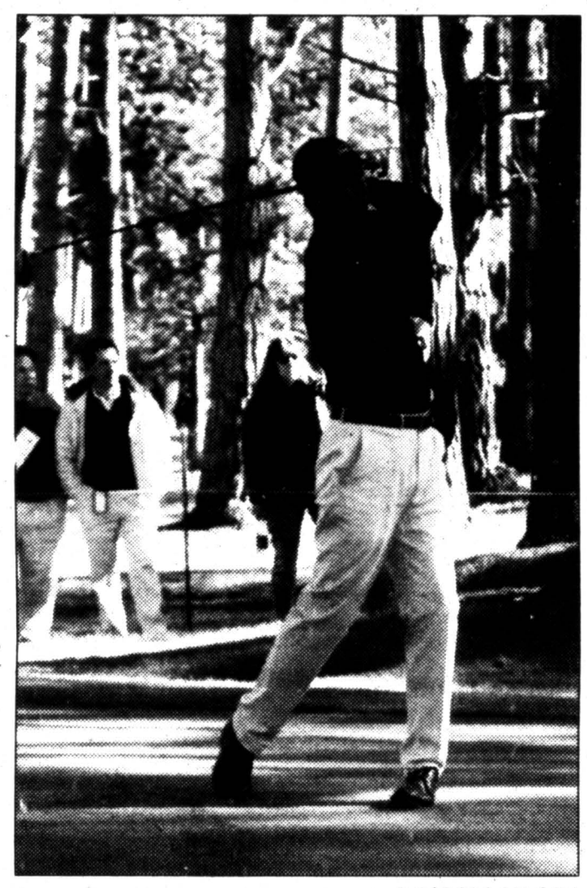
Love, the 2003 AT&T champion, finished that year ranked fourth in the world after winning five tournaments, but a winless 2004 caused a drop to eighth in the rankings.

Weir also slipped last year. Winner of four tournaments in 2003, he saw his world-ranking drop from sixth to eighth after just one win in 2004. Weir came in fourth in last year's AT&T.

Some of golf's other top names who will appear at the AT&T include: Paul Azinger; Ryder Cup captain Tom Lehman; John Daly, Craig Stadler and his son, Kevin; and the enigmatic David Duval.

Daly, who emerged on the scene in the early '90s only to fade after a struggle with alcoholism, re-emerged in 2004, being named the PGA Tour's Comeback Player of the Year. He had finished in the Top 10 in five tournaments, including winning the Buick Invitational in a playoff. It was his first win on the PGA tour since the 1995 British Open.

Craig Stadler now spends most of his time on the Champions Tour, where he was named Player of the Year last year. In addition to his five wins on tour, the Walrus was winner of the Arnold Palmer Award, given to the top money winner.



Mike Weir, fourth place finisher in last year's AT&T.

The younger Stadler, who will be celebrating his 25th birthday just days before the AT&T begins, makes up the second half of the only father-son duo in the tournament. Since turning pro in 2002, Kevin has spent most of his time on the Nationwide Tour, where he won two tournaments last year, including the Lake Erie Charity Classic, which he won on the same day his father won the Champion Tour's Bank of America Champion-ship.

The last time a father-son duo won tournaments on the same day was in March 1999, when Bob Duval won the Emerald Coast Classic and son, David, won the Players Championship. The following week, David Duval moved ahead of Tiger Woods to become the top-ranked golfer in the world. He stayed on top for about three months, until Woods regained the position. He has since been known as the last player to be ranked No. 1 since Woods began his record run.

David Duval is also known as a once great player who has fallen off the map. Not winning an event since the 2001 British Open, he made only three cuts in 20 starts in 2003, and after missing the cut for The Championship at Las Vegas in October 2003, Duval did not reappear on the PGA Tour until the 2004 U.S. Open, ending his seven-month hiatus.

2004 was only marginally better for Duval, as he made three of nine cuts. After missing the cut in his first three starts, he finally made it into the Deutsche Bank Championship, finishing 13th in the tournament. That was the same tournament Singh won to supplant Woods for the No. 1 ranking. Duval will be attempting to make his first cut of 2005 at Pebble Beach, after withdrawing from the Buick Invitational and missing the cut at the Bob Hope Classic.

Also participating in the AT&T this year will be Jimmy Walker, the 2004 Nationwide Tour Player of the Year. At 25 years old (he is now 26) Walker was the second-youngest to ever be named the tour's top player. (The youngest was Stewart Cink, who accomplished it at 23 years old and is now ranked 10th in the world.) As the Nationwide Tour's top money winner last year, Walker earned full-exempt status on the PGA Tour in 2005.

Two up-and-comers to look for this year at the AT&T are Joe Ogilvie and Geoff Ogilvy. Not only are the two associated because of their last names, they are both youngsters on the tour who are having similar success. Each had four Top-10 finishes in 2004 while earning well over $1 million.

While Ogilvy has yet to get rolling in 2005, Ogilvie took a lead into the final day of the Bob Hope Classic, only to fall into a second place tie with Tim Clark, who will also be appearing at the AT&T. The tournament winner, Justin Leonard, will not be in Pebble Beach.

Top 10 restaurants to try during the AT&T

EVEN DIEHARD golf fans have to take a break from the links to eat. And if they come to town this week to satisfy their palate as much as fill their autograph book, they'll be in luck, because the Monterey Peninsula is almost as famous for its fine restaurants as for its annual celebrity golf tournament.

Selecting the top local dining establishments from a total of 304 tablecloth restaurants can be a harrowing ordeal for a food and wine writer, especially when the proprietors of those omitted from the list will surely feel snubbed.

But narrowing the field to just the Top 10 restaurants actually makes this writer's task easier. By defining Top 10 to encompass the very best in cuisine, service, elegance, atmosphere and views, it is possible to put together a list that very few will contest.

Of the 10 selected, four are in Carmel-by-the-Sea, two in Monterey, two in Pacific Grove, one in Pebble Beach, and one in Big Sur.

It goes without saying that the accomplished chefs at these superior kitchens use only the freshest of produce — often provided by local growers — each day's harvest from the sea, and choicest fowl and viandes. Prices are steep, in most cases, but refinement carries its own price; reservations are, in all cases, mandatory.

Visitors who plan to return often to the Carmel area may want to make our list their own "Must visit" agenda for the next year.

Hidden from street view, the sparkling Court of the Fountains adds to the ambiance enjoyed by diners within Anton & Michel.

CARMEL HIGHLANDS — Pacific's Edge Restaurant, Highway 1, four miles south of Carmel, at the Highlands Inn Park Hyatt, offers a breathtaking panorama of the Pacific Ocean through floor-to-ceiling windows. Plan to arrive early for an aperitif at the bar or at cocktail tables, or in the piano area off the hotel's main lounge — all the better to take in the view before sunset. In the dining room, each table offers an unobstructed view of the ocean. Dinner is served starting at 5:30 nightly. Mark Ayers is the executive chef, Bernabe De Luna is the wine director, and together they'll make your dinner a memorable event. A five-course Chef's Menu is offered at $85 per person, or $150 per person inclusive of wine selected by De Luna for the menu.

Here's a sampling from the Chef's Menu: Celery root flan, frisée, braised chestnut and balsamic gastrique. Potato crusted day boat scallop with braised brussel sprouts, and Dijon-onion coulis. Or perhaps a butter braised Maine lobster, potato risotto, pearl onion and sweet corn bisque. And so much more.

Telephone (831) 622-5445.

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA — Anton & Michel, Mission Street between Ocean and Seventh avenues, looks out picture windows to The Court of the Fountains, a sparkling blue pool with flowing fountains, greenery and an abundance of bright flowers. Mark Simpson is the chef de cuisine of this restaurant, which has long been a favorite of visitors and locals, and which is open seven days a week for lunch (from 11:30 a.m.) and dinner (from 5:30 p.m.). Seafood entrées run $22 to $27, and meat and fowl entrées are $20 to $33. Such dishes as house cured duck prosciutto, fresh melon compote, with cracked black pepper and white truffle oil, French onion soup with croutons and Gruyère cheese, Hawaiian ahi tuna, and classic rack of lamb are all favorites on a carefully crafted menu.

Three course Sunset Dinners (excluding Saturdays and holidays) are available before 6 p.m. for $25. Another attraction: The very elegantly appointed bar off the foyer, one of the best kept secrets in Carmel. A lovely setting in which to meet friends.

Telephone (831) 624-2406

L'Auberge Carmel — Monte Verde between Ocean and Seventh Avenue. The luxury inn that houses this unique, upscale restaurant, was built in 1929, of a stye often seen in France, and is one of the architectural jewels of Carmel. Owners David and Kathleen Fink are responsible for the sensitive restoration and decor completed in 2004. The restaurant is intimate, seating 30, and is elegantly furnished with comfortable seating for the three-hour dinner served in seven courses on scores of small dishes. Accompanying this splendid fare are six wines paired to each night's menu by sommelier Thomas Perez. Executive Chef Walter Manzke and chef de cuisine Tim Mosblaech are indefatigably inventive with selection and preparation of the seemingly unending array of dégustations placed before diners. Stemware, place settings and flatware are changed with each course by superbly trained servers and busers.

Six of the dinner courses are inspired by different locales: Baja, Japan, Thailand, the Arctic, California and Niman Ranch, and include lobster, spot prawn, Dungeness crab, California farm squab, and beef strip loin — all with various accompaniments, and followed by two desserts. The wines come from the 3,000 bottles in the newly built cellar beneath the inn's brick-paved courtyard.

Telephone (831) 624-8578.

Terrace Grill at La Playa Hotel — Camino Real and Eighth Avenue — boasts one of the most beautiful gardens in our seaside village. One may lunch or dine in the enclosed main dining room or on the terrace, which is covered but open on two sides to welcome ocean breezes, occasionally allowing diners to hear the surf from Carmel Beach, which is only three blocks away. Executive Chef Bunyan Fortune has held forth at the Terrace Grill for more than 10 years. On the appetizer menu (which runs $6.50 to $9.75), an unusual and delicious house made shrimp tamale is offered served with passion fruit sauce and a drizzle of avocado cream. Seafood, pasta and dinner specialties run from $14 to $39. The brown sugar-cured pork tenderloin is pan roasted, sliced and fanned over a sautéed apple and Calvados sauce and served with mashed potatoes and seasonal vegetables.

THE CROSSROADS

Dining

The wine list, overseen by Gary Bartram, includes the finest wines from California's renowned vineyards.

Dinner is served nightly from 5:30 to 10, and a pub menu is available in the "Old Carmel" bar until 11. Lunch is served daily from 10:30 a.m. until 2:30 in the afternoon.

Telephone (831) 624-4010.

MONTEREY —

Fresh Cream — 99 Pacific St., Heritage Harbor.

Professional, tuxedoed waiters set the tone for this distinguished restaurant overlooking Fisherman's Wharf. Dinner here, from 5:30 to 10, assures patrons of a splendid view of the wharf and harbor with twinkling lights reflected in Monterey Bay. Renowned for its fine cuisine prepared by executive chef Gregory Lizza and sous chef Darrell Rose, Fresh Cream offers so many tempting dishes, it's difficult to make a selection. But for an appetizer, you must try the lobster ravioli with lobster butter and black and gold caviar ($12) which is artistically presented. Eleven entrées, including duckling, rack of lamb, filet mignon and veal loin are each served with delectable sauces. Holland Dover sole is boned at table, and the broiled Australian lobster tail with sautéed scallops, white corn bisque and brioche toast is unforgettable. Entrées run from $26.95 to $39. This is elegant dining as you remember it from San Francisco's finest restaurants.

Desserts, too, are in this genre: Soufflé au Grand Marnier is a perfect ending to a superb evening.

Telephone (831) 375-9798.

The Sardine Factory — 701 Wave St.

Four dining rooms and a distinguished cocktail lounge make The Sardine Factory one of the most versatile restaurants in Monterey. Its Steinbeck Room is in an intimate alcove; The Conservatory is a green and white lush, garden-like setting beneath a huge glass dome, the most romantic of the dining rooms; the blue and gold Captain's Room, with fireplace, pays tribute to Monterey's maritime history; and The Lounge, for all its expansiveness, offers intimate grouping of tables and upholstered chairs and sofas, much as in a distinctive private club.

The Wine Cellar, available for private parties of up to 28, affords a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Its baronial splendor and background dark wine caves are elegantly appointed.

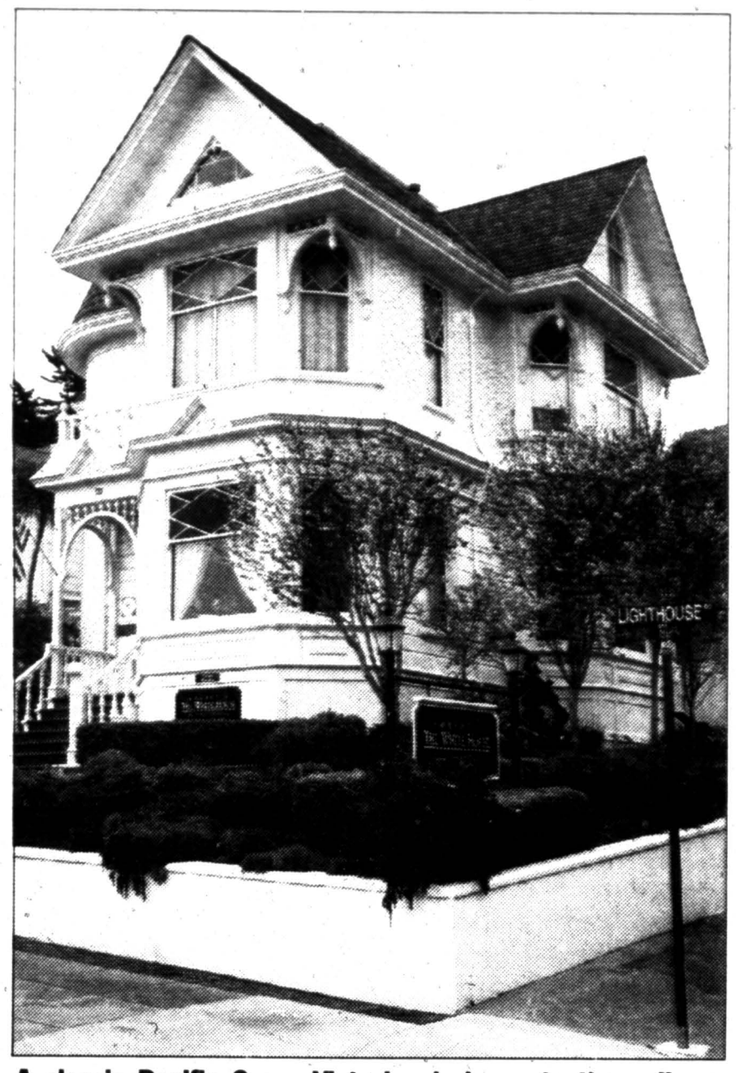
But The Sardine Factory is not all show: It's menus featuring fresh seafood and prime meats, and its food preparation — along with an award-winning wine cellar — are overseen by owner/partner Burt Cutino, and prepared by Executive Chef Robert Mancuso and chef Gaspar Catanzaro.

As an example of The Sardine Factory's inventiveness, under "chilled appetizers" you'll find Seafood Indulgence served on a silver stand ($29.95) consisting of a half Maine lobster, crawfish, prawns, Hog Island oysters, Manila clams, mussels and cracked crab served with various dipping sauces. Eastern corn-fed USDA prime steaks run from $28.95 to $42.95. The Cannery Row Lounge menu offers a little of everything wonderful, and has live piano music from 7 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

Restaurant hours are nightly Monday - Thursday, 5 to 10:30, and Friday and Saturday, 5 to 11.

Telephone (831) 373-3775.

The Sardine Factory boasts several distinctive dining areas and menus that celebrate fresh seafood and prime meats.



A classic Pacific Grove Victorian is home to the culinary artistry of Robert Kincaid, chef/owner of The White House.

PACIFIC GROVE —

Old Bathhouse — 620 Ocean View Blvd., contiguous with Lovers Point Park.

This really was the old bathhouse that served Pacific Grove beachgoers in the 1890s, long before it became the distinguished restaurant it is today with its wonderful ocean views. And it's romantic. Many an engagement and marriage have been celebrated here.

Cocktails are served from 4 p.m. in the intimate, dark-paneled, marble-topped barroom that is one of the most sophisticated on the Peninsula.

The dining room, open at 5 p.m., offers ocean views from every table. The service is impeccable, as befits a restaurant featuring classic cuisine. Executive Chef Boris Ilabaca has influenced the menu considerably.

If you choose one appetizer, choose the lobster bisque ($9.75), one of the best in the area. The essence of the lobster is captured in the deep, rich flavor enhanced with a dollop of crème fraîche. From 12 entrées ($25.50 to $41.50), you might like to try the truffled breast of chicken or the Lovers Point rack of New Zealand lamb served with mushroom risotto cakes topped with chanterelles and arugula. Finishing off dinner with a Belgian chocolate soufflé ($9) is a treat.

Telephone (831) 375-5195.

The White House — 649 Lighthouse Ave.

It's not difficult to find this restaurant, because of its architectural renown. An old Victorian mansion, The White House rises in stately splendor from its gardens and front steps. Chef/owner Robert Kincaid is known for his culinary artistry. He founded Fresh Cream in Monterey years ago, and went on to establish Robert's Bistro at The Crossroads Shopping Village. Each of those restaurants drew a clientele that has followed Kincaid to The White House.

Through some unknown wizardry, Chef Kincaid is able to present a three-course superb dinner for $37, exclusive of dessert. The menu, printed daily, offers eight first-course choices, five second-course choices and six main-course selections. Kincaid's much-acclaimed onion tart is among the first-course listings, as is a delicious chicken Wellington with cranberry chutney. Among the second-course offerings are a tomato basil bisque and a Greek salad of organic arugula greens, kalamata olives, feta cheese and roasted almonds.

The actual circa 1890s bathhouse that served Pacific Grove beachgoers long ago today houses the distinguished and romantic Old Bathhouse restaurant.

Entrées include a roast chipotle glazed pork loin, cranberry chutney, white wine butter sauce and gratin potatoes, and a New Year's crisp roast duckling half with black current sauce.

The interior is charming, with lace curtains and flowered wallpaper, and large windows with neighborhood views.

The White House is open six nights a week from 5:30, and is closed Mondays.

Telephone (831) 375-9626.

PEBBLE BEACH —

Club XIX — The Lodge at Pebble Beach.

Although the outstanding restaurants at Pebble Beach and Spanish Bay generally are sold out during the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, we are including Club XIX in our listing because it is open for lunch (as well as dinner) during the golf tournament. The decor and ambiance are of sophisticated elegance, and the dining room and bricked patio afford a perfect view of the 18th green of Pebble Beach Golf Links.

Luncheon at the club might begin with an appetizer of Anson Mills white polenta, roasted baby vegetables and Laura Chenel chevre ($15), or a Maine lobster bisque with chive oil ($14), while a second course might be a Club XIX prime burger with Yukon Gold French fries ($21).

Chef Rick Edge pulls out all the stops at dinner. You might like to try his seared Hudson Valley foie gras, with black Mission figs, toasted brioche and fig butter; and, as an entrée, roasted Scottish salmon with speck ham, savoy cabbage with a Sauterne-mustard sauce.

The menu and wine list are tempting in the extreme.

Telephone (831) 625-8519.

BIG SUR —

The restaurant is perched 1,200 feet above The Pacific Ocean, and the floor-to-ceiling windows looking down on the pounding surf afford a view that will literally take your breath away. Executive Chef Craig Von Foerster has held forth here for many years, specializing in California and Pacific Rim fusion cuisine.

Only 65 diners can be accommodated in the restaurant which features a four-course, prix fixe menu at $78 per person. Braised Niman Ranch short ribs, oysters on the half shell and terrine of foie gras with quince marmalade are among the first-course choices.

Course two features a salad and two soups, while course three gets serious with, for example, New York Steak with foie gras braised leeks, Big Sur chanterelle mushroom Stroganoff or a roast Sike venison with butternut squash ravioli. Course four might be a pineapple upside-down cake with coconut sorbet.

The dinner menu is different every night, but the luncheon menu's à la carte choices, from $6 to $18, change only slightly with the seasons.

The wine cellar at Sierra Mar houses in excess of 3,900 bottles.

The appointments are in keeping with the tradition of handmade everything in Big Sur, so you won't be surprised to find the stunning dinnerware of hand blown glass, and even the cutlery is hand crafted.

Tournament marks decades of charity and great golf

PINE CONE STAFF REPORT

IN 1937, Bing Crosby invited a group of friends to get together for a round of golf and a "clambake" at Rancho Santa Fe in Southern California. That gathering of Hollywood celebrities and golf greats gave birth to the first National Pro-Amateur Golf Championship, sponsored by Bing Crosby, with Sam Snead taking the top prize of $500.

For five years, the tournament was played at Rancho Santa Fe before being discontinued during the war years. Meanwhile, 1946 was shaping up to be a bleak year for the Monterey Peninsula. Postwar Monterey was frantically scraping for income, the chief source having been packed into sardine tins for just about the last time. Cannery Row was heading into a long decline, Carmel wasn't a worldwide tourist attraction, Pebble Beach had yet to classified the finest course in the world, and nobody had heard of a young, would-be actor named Clint Eastwood.

At this time, a newspaper reporter, Ted Durein, came up with the idea of attracting more tourists by bringing a major special event to the area. A good sporting event, once a year, perhaps garnished with celebrities, could anchor a drifting economy. Slowly an idea began to take shape, along with a worldwide household name: Crosby.

Durein solicited local merchants to see if they would pool money for a tournament purse — they would. Bravely, Durein wrote to Bing Crosby himself with the idea. That was in January of 1946. February and March passed. Nothing. April, May, still nothing. Then, in June, a letter from Bing's brother, Larry, arrived. Yes, Bing was interested. What's the offer? Durein didn't have one.

The deal is struck

He quickly rushed to see if Samuel F.B. Morse (president of Del Monte Properties, now known as Pebble Beach Company) would let the Pebble Beach golf course host the Crosby. Morse agreed. Ted met with Larry Crosby and the deal was struck.

Bing then decided he wanted the tournament spread out over three courses: Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and the Monterey Peninsula Country Club's Dunes Course. The PGA Tour, the controlling body of the professional golfers' tournament, said this was unprecedented. Bing asked, "Why not? It's done in England." The PGA Tour consented and the Crosby Pro-Am broke new ground in American golf and was played for the first time on the Monterey Peninsula in January 1947.

Since then, the annual tournament at Pebble Beach has been a staple of the PGA Tour calendar. The tournament purse has increased from $500 for first prize in 1937 to a first prize of $900,000 in 2004. The monies for charity each year have continued to set new records as well, with total contributions hitting $46 million.

Bing Crosby died in 1977. His wife and children continued to host the Crosby Pro-Am until 1986, when AT&T took over sponsorship of the event. Since 1991, the event has been played at Pebble Beach, Poppy Hills and Spyglass. Over the last 20 years, the event has provided some of the most dramatic moments in golf, including Hale Irwin's fantastically lucky tee shot in 1984, and Tiger Woods' amazing comeback in 2000.

It has also endured some of the worst weather ever for a major sporting event. Twice, after particularly cold and rainy spells, tournament organizers have talked about moving the Pro-Am to a different time of year. And on one occasion, when the hardy golfers refused to surrender to gale force winds and near-freezing temperatures, Crosby reminded everyone that, "We must not forget the players — those dauntless athletes, professionals and amateurs alike — who are willing to pit their skills, and in some instances their survival, against these challenging links in conditions which sometimes defy description."

But most years there have been glorious, only-in-California conditions for the Pebble Beach Pro-Am. And the memories have been golden, too.

Winner: Jack Nicklaus
66-74-71-73 (284)

A 25-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff gave Jack Nicklaus the Crosby title and a $28,000 first-place check. He beat Johnny Miller after both had poor rounds on the final day — hitting bad tee shots and missing short putts all over the course. Miller even hit a ball into the ocean on 10. Nicklaus, who three-putted on 17 to set up the playoff, earned his fifth tour victory in six events. Lee Trevino took third place, as well as the Pro-Am title with partner Don Schwab.

According to a newspaper account, Clint Eastwood, then at the height of his "Dirty Harry" fame, playing in his seventh Crosby, missed the cut and spent Sunday watching the Super Bowl (Dallas 24, Miami 3) and playing tennis.

Winner: Jack Nicklaus
71-69-71-71 (282)

Despite back-to-back bogies on 7 and 8 at Pebble during the final round, Jack Nicklaus won the tournament for the second straight year in a sudden-death playoff — and again with a birdie putt on the first sudden-death hole, 15. Robert Moody appeared to have the tournament won in regulation, but missed an easy two-and-a-half-foot putt on 18 that knocked him back into a tie with Nicklaus and Ray Floyd. "I missed a $20,000 putt," Moody said. Not only that, he shot 76 on the final round, while Nicklaus and Floyd both shot 71. Instead of the top prize of $36,000, Moody had to settle for second place money, $16,650. Lanny Wadkins and Bill Satterfield won the Pro-Am title.

1974
Winner: Johnny Miller
68-70-70 (208)

After six straight days of rain, sleet and hail, and with Pebble Beach looking more like ocean than land, the final round of the Crosby had to be canceled after being delayed from Sunday to Monday (Jan. 8). With everyone in a miserable mood, tournament officials threatened not to hold the event again unless it could be moved later in the year. "If we don't get the third or fourth weekend in January next year, I'd say there won't be a tournament," said chairman Don Searle. Originally, the 1974 tournament was scheduled for Feb. 14-17, but Crosby officials and local business people were unhappy with the prospect of playing over Washington's birthday weekend, when tourists would flock to the Monterey Peninsula anyway. So they negotiated a date switch with the Glen Campbell Los Angeles Open, but that still left everybody unhappy. After Sunday's round was postponed, defending champion Jack Nicklaus withdrew. He was suffering in the wet weather from back pain and had fallen 10 strokes behind leader Johnny Miller. When Monday's round was cancelled, Miller got a reduced winner's check of $27,500. But he also received a check for $2,250 for winning the Pro-Am side, with partner Locke de Bretteville.

1975
Winner: Gene Littler
68-71-68-73 (280)

A former amateur boxing champ and winner of the 1961 U.S. Open, 44-year-old Gene Littler dented the aura of invincibility that had surrounded youthful Johnny Miller during the first two weeks of the 1975 PGA Tour. A final round of 73 gave him a total of 280, enough for a four-stroke victory over Hubert Green. Miller double-bogeyed 15 on the final round, played in frigid temperatures and gale force winds, and finished with 289, along with Jack Nicklaus. Tom Watson shot 81 on the final day, including two triple bogeys. Littler's winning purse was $37,000 and it came after 20 years of playing the Crosby, with his previous best finish having been second in 1959. Pro-Am winners were Bruce Devlin and former NFL quarterback Jacky Lee. The tournament was boycotted by Lee Trevino, who said he didn't like playing in the rain on the Monterey Peninsula. Perhaps because of his comment, it didn't rain a bit.

1976
Winner: Ben Crenshaw
75-67-70-69 (281)

The 35th Bing Crosby Pro-Am featured a rare meltdown by Jack Nicklaus, who shot 45 in warm sunshine on the back nine at Pebble Beach in the final round, including a double bogey and two triple bogeys, clearing the way for 24-year-old Ben Crenshaw to claim the $37,000 first prize. With a record crowd on hand, Nicklaus led the field going into Sunday's play, but ended up tied for 18th place. Already out of the big money and in a hurry to catch a flight to Japan, Nicklaus tried to get to the 18th green in two, but pulled his wood shot into Carmel Bay and finished, in front of a national TV audience, with a triple-bogey eight. Johnny Miller, suffering through two rounds with the flu, tied with Nicklaus at 291. Pro-Am winners were Hale Irwin and Pebble Beach resident Darius Keaton, who was then chairman of Charter Oil Company.

Winner: Tom Watson
66-69-67-71 (276)

Tom Watson picked up the first prize of $40,000 with a dramatic one-stroke victory that included rounds of 66 at Pebble Beach on Thursday, 69 at Cypress Point on Friday, 67 at MPCC's Shore Course on Saturday, and a 71 in the final round at Pebble on Sunday, breaking the tournament record, set by Billy Casper in 1958, by four strokes. Saturday's gallery of 28,000 was also a then-record — helped by sunny skies and mild temperatures. Former President Gerald Ford, playing in the Pro-Am for the first time, had a birdie on 14 at Pebble Beach on Friday. Leonard Thompson and Jim Vickers, an oil man from Wichita, won the Pro-Am side.

Winner: Tom Watson
66-74-71-69 (280)

Becoming the fourth man to win back-to-back Crosbys, Tom Watson beat Ben Crenshaw on the second hole of sudden death on the final day of play, which was pushed back to Monday by rain. Shooting a torrid six-under-par 30 on the front nine at Pebble on the final day, Watson finished with a 69, bringing him into an unexpected tie with Crenshaw, who shot a seemingly unbeatable 67. Watson's first-place finish was worth $45,000. Pro Gibby Gilber and Richard Gelb, chairman of the board of Bristol-Myers, won the Pro-Am team title.

1979
Winner: Lon Hinkle
70-68-69-77 (284)

After Andy Bean missed a 20-foot putt on 18, a three-way tie forced a playoff between Bean and fellow PGA youngsters Mark Hayes and Lon Hinkle — a playoff ultimately decided in Hinkle's favor when he sank a 12-foot birdie putt on 17. The winner's purse was $54,000. Hinkle's dramatic finish wasn't seen by TV viewers, however, when CBS decided to end its coverage after 72 holes in favor of "60 Minutes" and "Rocky." Jack Nicklaus missed the Crosby in 1979 for the first time in his career, and Hale Irwin broke his string of making the cut in 87 straight tournaments. Pro-Am winners were Bean and Florida real estate developer Bill Bunting.

Bing Crosby and his wife, Kathryn, shepherded the tournament that bore his name until AT&T took over sponsorship of the event in 1986.

George Burns III
71-69-71-69 (280)

Under crystal-clear skies, a record gallery of more than 10,000 watched Sunday's final round of the Crosby, when George Burns overcame a big lead by Jack Nicklaus to win. Nicklaus was at one point 10 under (including a 5-under performance on the first six holes Sunday) but faded on the back nine. Burns, meanwhile, was steadily making difficult putts, including a monster 40-footer on 16. "It surprised the hell out of me," said Burns who, at 30, had won almost $500,000 in five years on the PGA Tour without a victory. He added another $54,000 with his win at Pebble Beach. Pro-Am winners were George Cadle and Whizzer Farish of Pebble Beach, a pilot for Pan-Am playing in his 22nd Crosby.

1981
Winner: John Cook
66-71-72 (209)

A dramatic five-way playoff, the first-ever on the PGA Tour, ended in a stunning victory for unknown pro John Cook over 20-year-old Bobby Clampett, Hale Irwin, Ben Crenshaw and Barney Thompson. Cook won by making par on the third playoff hole after lapses by his opponents (including a bogey by Irwin) left the door wide open. Rain delayed the start of the Crosby to Saturday, and icy winds made things miserable throughout the weekend. Nevertheless, record crowds turned out to watch the tournament, which was shortened to 54 holes and ended on Monday. Clampett, who lived in Carmel Valley, missed the victory when he couldn't sink a three-foot par putt on his final hole at Cypress. Cook's winning purse was $40,500 (reduced by 25 percent because the tournament was shortened). Pro-Am winners were again George Cadle and Whizzer Farish — the first and only Pro-Am team to repeat. Farish, who grew up on the Peninsula, said of the three Crosby courses, "I've played them a thousand times — each."

1982
Winner: Jim Simons
71-66-71-66 (274)

Blowing a five-stroke lead with 10 holes to play — and foreshadowing the 2000 AT&T Pro-Am when Tiger Woods overcame an even bigger deficit — Craig Stadler let Jim Simons win the 1982 Crosby and its first prize of $54,000. But Simons was no patsy; his final round of 66 was one of the finest finishes to date in the tournament, and he set a Crosby record with his total of 274, 14 under par. The great Jack Nicklaus might have won, but ended up in a five-way tie for third (with Johnny Miller and three others) after missing several key putts.

1983
Winner: Tom Kite
69-72-62-73 (276)

It rained all day during Sunday's final round, but play continued anyway as Tom Kite took the tournament despite a final round of 73. Saturday, when Kite also played Pebble, he set a course record of 62. The $58,500 first prize was Kite's fifth PGA crown in 12 years. Despite four birdies on the back nine, Jack Nicklaus finished in sixth place — which earned him $11,700 and made him the first golf pro to earn more than $4 million in a career. Cal Peete was in second place, two strokes back. The Pro-Am winners were Gilder and Clark.

1984
Winner: Hale Irwin
69-69-68-72 (278)

With the most improbable shot in Pebble Beach history, Hale Irwin captured the 1984 Crosby title and the $72,000-check that came with it. Even Tiger Woods couldn't hope to pull off the shot Irwin made on 18 at Pebble during the final round Sunday. Irwin's tee shot was headed out into Stillwater

Cove when the ball improbably caromed off a rock and bounced back onto the fairway. "The entire tournament evolved around that tremendous break I had on 18," Irwin said. Mark O'Meara, with two eagles on the front nine, nearly caught Irwin. Even after Irwin birdied 18, Jim Nelford did catch him, forcing a playoff. But on the second playoff hole — 16 — Irwin made a tremendous second shot from a bunker 200 yards onto the green and just nine feet from the cup. When Nelford missed his birdie putt on the hole, Irwin calmly nailed his tournament-winning shot. O'Meara, paired with J.P. Diesel of Houston, won the Pro-Am team crown.

Winner: Mark O'Meara
70-72-68-73 (273)

The final year of the Crosby saw the tournament begin under frosty skies with winds at 35 mph. But in the end, Mark O'Meara warmed up the crowd with clutch putting that, despite a final round of 73, gave him the $90,000 first place check and a then-record 72-hole low Pebble Beach Pro-Am score of 273. Larry Rinker, Kikou Arai and Curtis Strange were all just one shot behind. Playing in the final group, O'Meara missed a birdie putt on 18, but so did Strange, ending any chance of a playoff. Dean Spanos, who lived in Stockton and was part-owner of the San Diego Chargers, and pro partner Hubert Green captured the Pro-Am crown.

1986
Winner: Fuzzy Zoeller
69-66-70 (205)

The first year with its new corporate sponsor was nearly a washout for the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. Friday's round was canceled after heavy morning rains drenched the three courses. And so was the rescheduled final round on Monday, leaving Fuzzy Zoeller the winner of the $108,000 first prize after just 54 holes. Crowds were sparse, but the tournament still generated a hefty sum for charity, with AT&T contributing $750,000 in its first year backing the tournament. Zoeller, who was on Pebble Monday before play was suspended, called the weather, "the worst conditions I've ever played under." He was also winner of the Pro-Am team title, partnered with Coral de Tierra golfer Mike Evans.

1987
Winner: Johnny Miller
72-72-68-66 (278)

Taking advantage of a bogey on 17 by third-round leader Payne Stewart, Johnny Miller won the Pebble Beach Pro-Am for the second time. On a perfect Sunday at Pebble Beach, he shot a six-under 66, including seven birdies, for the $108,000 first prize. "I can't believe I won," Miller was overheard to say to his caddy as the day wrapped up. Stewart finished just one stroke back. This was Miller's 19th appearance at the tournament he continued to call "The Crosby." In 1968, he launched his career with a victory at the California State Amateur, also at Pebble Beach, which he often referred to as his home course. And Miller wasn't through. He came back and won the Pro-Am again in 1994. The team victory in 1987 went to Fred Couples and baseball great George Brett, who capped the title with a three-inch putt on 18.

Winner: Steve Jones
72-64-70-74 (280)

With an 18-foot birdie putt on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff, Steve Jones capped a dramatic victory at Pebble Beach over a field that included five or six players with a shot at the title. Jones, a relative unknown, triumphed over 1988's top players, including Bob Tway, Greg Norman and Craig Stadler. Jones had a three-stroke lead as Sunday's round began, but bogeys on 15 and 17 opened the door for Tway, who tied the leader with a birdie on 18. But in the playoff, it was Jones who out-putted the veteran for a $126,000 first-place check. The Pro-Am winners were Dan Pohl and Miami Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

Winner; Mark O'Meara
66-68-73-70 (277)

With a dramatic 10-foot birdie putt on 18, Mark O'Meara edged out Tom Kite — who missed his chance for a tie on 18 when his 15-foot putt for a birdie fell short — for the 1989 first prize of $180,000. "I knew that whoever birdied 18 would win," Kite said. He finished just one stroke back. After the match, O'Meara sharply criticized the slow play during the tournament, saying it took his group three hours to finish the first nine holes during the final round. Pro-Am winners were Steve Jones and Carmel Valley doctor Jim Rheim, who birdied 18 with a 9-foot putt.

1990
Winner: Mark O'Meara
67-73-69-72 (281)

Winning for the second year in a row, Mark O'Meara became the first player to win back-to-back titles since Tom Watson in 1977 and 1978. Nicklaus also won consecutive titles; Cary Middlecoff was the first to do it back in '55 and '56. No one has done it since. O'Meara won the $180,000 first prize with a final round of 72 at a windy Pebble Beach. Kenny Perry finished in second place, two strokes back. Payne Stewart seemed like the favorite to win until he bogeyed 12, 14, 16 and 18. Four groups had to finish their third round Sunday morning, after high winds at Cypress curtailed play on Saturday. Dean Spanos, co-owner of the San Diego Chargers, teamed with Hubert Green for the Pro-Am team title.

Winner: Paul Azinger
67-67-73-67 (274)

After being frustrated with his play at Pebble Beach year after year, Azinger stormed to a final round score of 67 to take the tournament from gallery favorite Rocco Mediate. "Every year when I leave here, I say I'm not coming back," Azinger joked after taking the $198,000 first prize. Before the 1991 Pro-Am, Azinger said he'd never shot better than a 70 at Pebble. On his way to the victory, he birdied 13 and 17, while Mediate was blowing his once-substantial tournament lead with a final round of 74. The Pro-Am team title went to John Cook and soap opera star Jack Wagner.

1991 was also the first year Poppy Hills was part of the Pro-Am play; it replaced Cypress Point golf club after PGA officials raised concerns about the club's exclusive membership policies.

Winner: Mark O'Meara
69-68-68-70 (275)

With a dramatic 35-foot putt on 18 to force a playoff with Jeff Sluman, Mark O'Meara made perhaps his most dramatic shot in a run of three AT&T Pro-Am victories in four years. He captured the $198,000 first-place prize by sinking another great putt — from 18 feet — on the first playoff hole. The day started poorly for O'Meara, who shot 38 on the front nine. But he came storming back with a 32 on the back nine. Paul Azinger was just one back after regulation play finished, despite shooting 68 for the final round. Pro-Am winners Greg Norman and Kerry Packers set a tournament record with a 42-under total of 246.

1993
Winner: Brett Ogle
68-68-69-71 (276)

Gregarious Australian Brett Ogle captured his first PGA Tour victory at Pebble Beach with a three-shot triumph in the AT&T Pro-Am, despite four bogeys in six holes during the final round. With a steady rain falling through much of the day, Ogle birdied three of the last six holes to fend off challengers Billy Ray Brown and Greg Twigs. Ogle's first-place finish was worth $225,000. Tom Watson had the low round on the final day, with birdies on 10, 11, 18, 6, 7 and 9. Payne Stewart and Jim Morris won the Pro-Am title, after Mark McGwire knocked his team out of contention with a bogey on 18.

1994
Winner: Johnny Miller
68-72-67-74 (281)

Defying the calendar, 46-year-old Johnny Miller captured the AT&T Pro-Am, and even he had trouble believing it. "I play two tournaments a year . . . this is magic," he said. The win was Miller's third title in three different decades at the Pebble Beach charity event — he had previously won in 1974 and 1987. Jeff Maggert, Corey Pavin, Kirk Triplett and Tom Watson all finished just one stroke behind Miller, who sank a one-foot putt for par on 18 to avoid a possible five-way playoff. It rained nearly all day during the final round and, with a gale blowing from the south, Miller got to the green in two on 17 to preserve his lead while Watson was bogeying 14, 16 and 17. Miller's first-place finish was worth $225,000. Pro-Am winners were Dudley Hart and 18-year-old amateur Robert Floyd.

1995
Winner: Peter Jacobsen
67-73-66-65 (271)

With the best final round by a winner, Peter Jacobsen captured the $252,000 winner's purse despite starting play at Pebble Beach on Sunday at three under. His total score, 271, was the lowest since Mark O'Meara's 273 in 1985, but with clean-and-place rules in effect because of a wet course, Jacobsen said his record score deserved "an asterisk." With a bit of sun finally showing through the clouds, Jacobsen birdied 18 to seal his victory. David Duval, in his first full year on the PGA Tour, finished in second place, two strokes back. 1996
Winner: nobody

Tournament canceled due to unplayable conditions

The weather on Sunday was pleasant: low clouds, some sun, no rain. But heavy rains earlier in the week, including a torrential downpour on Saturday, left the courses — especially Spyglass — in unplayable condition, forcing outright cancellation of the AT&T Pro-Am due to weather for the first, and only, time in its history. (Play was suspended from 1942 to 1946 because of WWII.) In particular, one flooded spot on 16 at Spyglass was cited by PGA officials as requiring cancellation of the event. Jeff Maggert was the leader at 136 after 54 holes; he got $5,000 in consolation money, just like all the other pros in the field.

Winner: Mark O'Meara
67-67-67-67 (268)

Fighting off an amazing comeback by Tiger Woods — who was in 67th place on Friday and trailed by seven shots Sunday morning — Mark O'Meara won his fifth AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am by a single shot over Woods and David Duval. Woods, playing in a foursome one hole ahead of O'Meara, had six birdies in the first 12 holes but bogeyed 13. Two shots down on 18, Woods made a dramatic bid for an eagle on 18. His second shot, from 267 yards out, landed on the front of the green. But he missed a 35-foot putt and had to settle for a birdie. O'Meara's all-time low score at the event was worth $342,000. Pro-Am champs were Paul Stankowski and Andy Garcia.

Winner: Phil Mickelson
67-68-67 (202)

A torrential downpour on Sunday brought back memories of 1996, when the AT&T Pro-Am was canceled after 54 holes. But in 1998, with California again experiencing record-breaking rains, PGA officials looked for a way to squeeze in a third round at Pebble Beach sometime later in the year. First, they set the final round for March 2. Later, it was rescheduled again to Aug. 17. The winner's check was $450,000. The Pro-Am portion of the tournament was canceled.

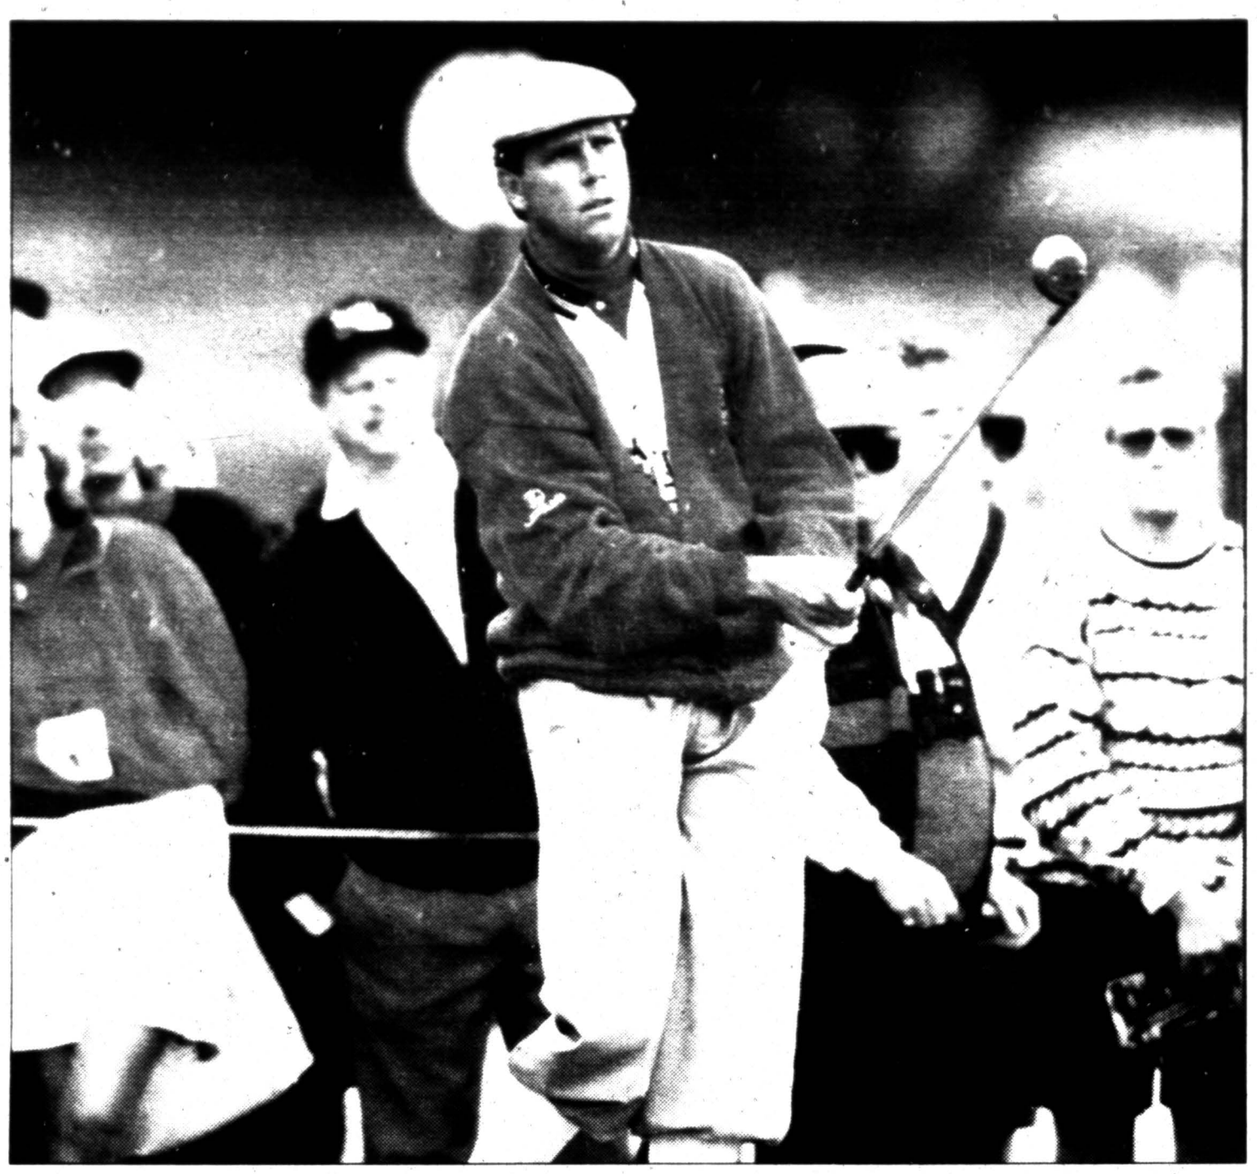
Winner: Payne Stewart
69-64-73 (206)

With weather getting seriously in the way for the fourth time in five years, the 1999 tournament was shortened to just 54 holes, just like it had been the year before. Saturday leader Payne Stewart was declared the winner of the $504,000 first prize after heavy rains Saturday night and Sunday forced cancellation of the final round. Stewart's final shot on Saturday, a tap-in birdie on 18 at Spyglass, turned out to be the winner over Frank Lickliter, just one shot back. Pro-Am winners were Lickliter and Robert MacDonnell. Later that year, Stewart won the U.S. Open at Pinehurst, S.C. He died in a plane crash Oct. 25 when carbon monoxide rendered everyone on board his chartered airplane unconscious soon after takeoff from Orlando, Fla. The plane flew on autopilot until it ran out of fuel and crashed in South Dakota, depriving Stewart of the chance to defend his U.S. Open and AT&T Pro-Am titles — both at Pebble Beach — in 2000.



A fatal air crash deprived 1999 champion Payne Stewart of the opportunity to defend his U.S. Open and AT&T Pro-Am titles, both won at Pebble Beach.

Winner: Tiger Woods
68-73-68-64 (273)

Leaving the crowd and the sportswriters practically speechless, Tiger Woods gave the AT&T Pro-Am a finish unlike any other. Down five shots when play began on Sunday, and even further behind — seven shots — with just seven holes to play, Woods took complete control of his game and the tournament, capping his comeback with a 97-foot wedge shot on 15 that hit just to the right of the hole, took two bounces, and landed in the cup. He nearly did the same on 16 and finished two strokes ahead of Vijay Singh and Matt Gogel to take the first prize of $720,000. The win was Woods' sixth in a row on the PGA Tour. Pro-Am champs were Skip Kendall and King City businessman David Gill. The tournament was the last Pebble Beach Pro-Am event for golf legend Jack Nicklaus.

2001
Winner: Davis Love III
71-69-69-63 (272)

Despite a seven-shot deficit when play started under sparkling, clear skies Sunday morning, Davis Love III put together an amazing round of 63, including five birdies and an eagle on the first six holes. On the front nine, he was an amazing eight under. Another birdie on 15 sealed his victory and the first-place money of $720,000. Vijay Singh finished just one stroke back; Tiger Woods was eight strokes off the lead. Phil Mickelson and saxophonist Kenny G tied with Tiger Woods and Jerry Chang for the Pro-Am title.

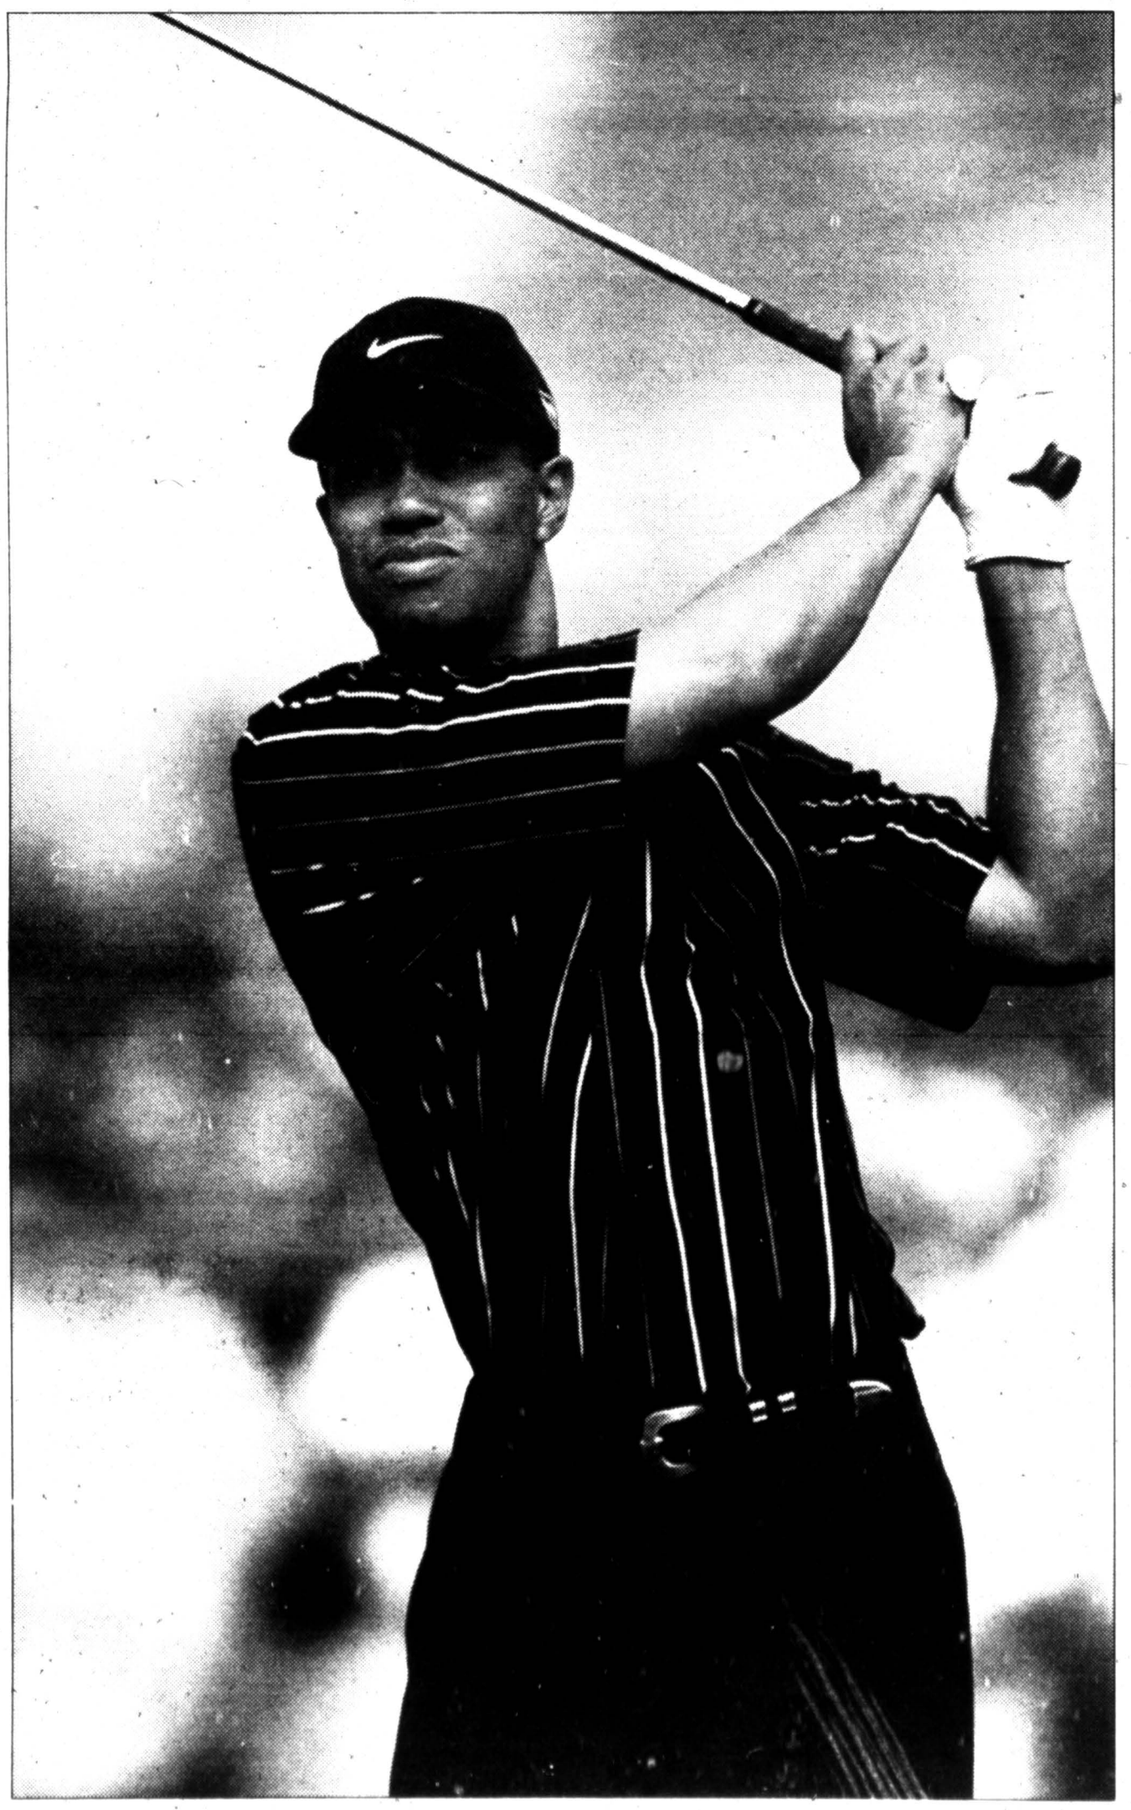
Winner: Matt Gogel
66-72-67-69 (274)

With his first PGA Tour victory, Gogel picked up a check for $720,000 after shooting two under on the back nine during the final round. Two years earlier, Gogel had watched Tiger Woods stage an incredible comeback to take the tournament from him. This year, third-round leader Pat Perez, who was up by four strokes when play started Sunday, withered on the final day, shooting a triple-bogey on the 18th Hole, opening the door for Gogel who showed none of the nervousness of 2000. Tiger Woods shot 282, eight strokes off the lead (for the second year in a row). Pro-Am winners were Brian Claar and Randall Mays.

2003
Winner: Davis Love III
72-67-67-68 (274)

With nothing but blue skies and mild temperatures throughout the tournament, talk of "Crosby Weather" and of moving the AT&T later in the year — a common topic in the storm-tossed 1990s — was completely forgotten. And with Tiger Woods sitting out the Pro-Am after consecutive years finishing eight strokes off the lead, all the attention was on less well known, but equally formidable, PGA stars. Davis Love III salvaged a victory with a birdie on 18 on the final day — holding off Tom Lehman by a single stroke. Love's win — his second in three years — came despite a bogey on 16 on the final round. In the group just ahead, Tom Lehman bogeyed two holes in the front nine but then shot five birdies on the back nine and seemed poised to force a playoff. A missed birdie putt from less than six feet on 18 left him in second place. Love's win, worth $900,000, came with some extraordinary luck: His tee shot on 12 hit a photographer (not from The Pine Cone) and rolled to within easy putting distance of the pin. The Pro-Am ended in a tie, with pros Phil Tataurangi and Brad Faxon and their amateur partners Chris Heatley and Thomas Ryan ending up with 31-under scores of 257. Both pairings finished with final rounds of 64. Two Pro-Am teams were disqualified during the tournament for signing incorrect scorecards.❍



Tiger Woods' AT&T win in 2000 was his sixth in a row on the PGA Tour that year.

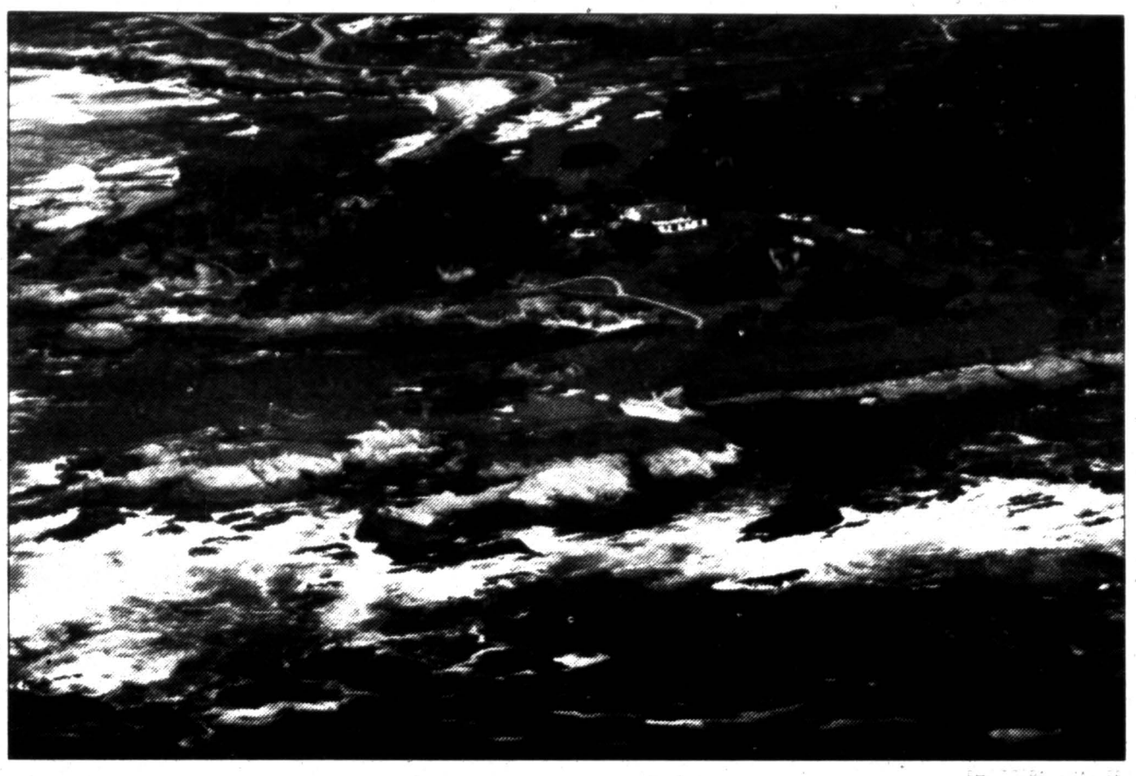
Golf excellence is par for the course on the Monterey Peninsula

WHILE GOLF fans all over the world revere the Pebble Beach Golf Links as one of the finest courses ever created, they may not realize the Monterey Peninsula is home to dozens of golf courses suitable for all levels of play and all budgets. Whether you're a scratch golfer looking for a challenge or a hacker more interested in just having a good time, there's a golf course worth playing.



The Cypress Point Club, opened in 1928 in Pebble Beach, is not only one of the most scenic courses in the United States, but also among the most private.

Bayonet and Black Horse, Seaside — Created in Fort Ord's heyday for military use, these two courses now belong to the City of Seaside and have undergone extensive renovation in recent years. Gen. Robert McClure, designer of Bayonet in 1954, was known for his left-handed slice and designed the course accordingly, so that the only severe doglegs on the course run right to left. The course is named for the 7th Infantry Light Fighter DIvision, nicknamed the Bayonet Division, and is infamous for its grueling Holes 11 though 15, known as Combat Corner. Gen. Edwin Carns designed Black Horse in 1963, and it was bestowed with the nickname of the 11th Calvary Regiment, which had been stationed on the other side of the bay at the Presidio of Monterey form 1919 to 1940. The 7,116-yard, par 72 Bayonet and the 7,009-yard, par 72 Black Horse — which have hosted the PGA's Qualifying School and are played during the AT&T's companion event, the First Tee Open, in the fall — are open to the public. Course records include a 65 by Notah Begay on Bayonet and a 64 on Black Horse by Ted Oh. The courses are located at 1 McClure Way in Seaside on the former Fort Ord. Green fees run $54 to $75 (higher on weekends and holidays), with twilight rates of $45 to $55 available after 12:30 p.m. daily. Discount rates available to juniors (17 and under), seniors (60 and older) and military. Cart fees are $26-$36. Call (831) 899-7271 (PAR-1) or visit www.bayonetblackhorse.com.

Carmel Valley Ranch, Carmel Valley — A public/resort/semiprivate club course designed by Pete Dye and built in 1981, Carmel Valley Ranch sits just east of Mid Carmel Valley along the Carmel River and up to the base of nearby hills. C.V. Ranch seeks to offer the quintessential private country club experience to players, down to its high-quality food and the clubhouse designed by award-winning architect Will Shaw. Pro Bobby Clampett holds the course record of 63 with player Mark Brooks. The 6,201-yard par 70 course can be played by members and resort guests. Reciprocal with other private clubs. General public fees run $160 Monday through Thursday, and $180 Friday through Sunday for tee times reserved up to seven days in advance. Tee times reserved eight to 30 days in advance increase by $10. Twilight golf begins at 2 p.m. daily and runs $85 seven days a week, but twilight times may only be reserved up to seven days in advance. Carmel Valley Ranch is located at One Old Ranch Road, off of Carmel Valley Road just east of Mid Valley Shopping Center. For more information or tee times, call (831) 626-2510 or visit www.cvrgolf.com.

Corral de Tierra Country Club, Salinas — This 6,683-yard par 72 course, situated off the Monterey-Salinas Highway and graced with some of the best weather on the Peninsula, was designed by Bob Baldock in 1960. It was redesigned about five years ago by Michael Poellot, and now offers the added challenge of quite a few bunkers. Its gentle elevation changes and tree-lined fairways also make it a great walking course. It has served as a site for U.S. Open qualifying rounds Course record 63 shot by several players. Course, located at the club at 81 Corral de Tierra Road just east of Los Laureles Grade on Highway 68 (Monterey-Salinas Highway), is open only to members and guests. Reciprocal agreement with other private clubs. Guest fees, $65-$105; cart fee, $32. For information, call (831) 484-1112 or visit www.corraldetierracc.com.

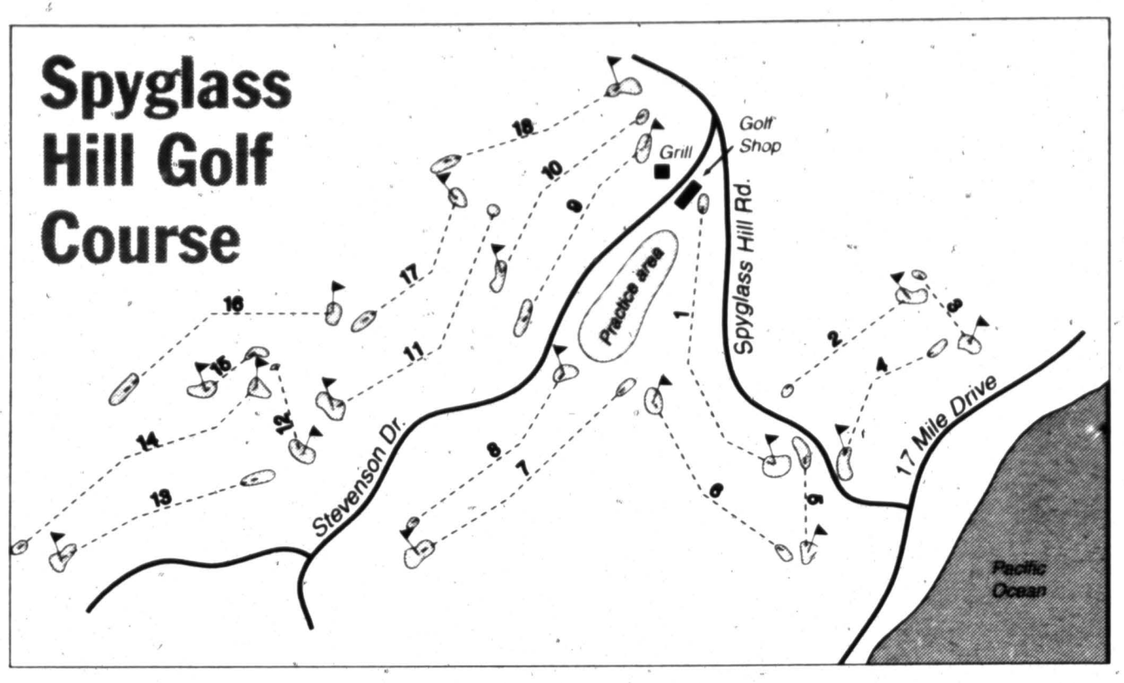
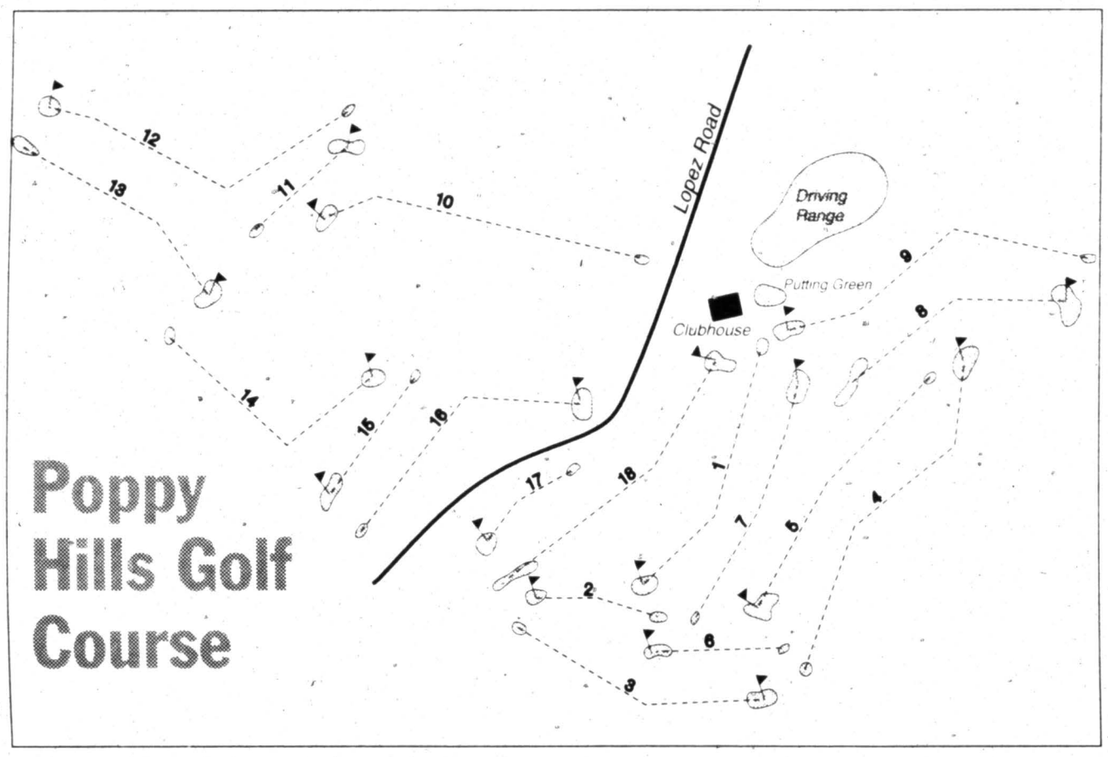
Cypress Point Club, Pebble Beach — Designed in 1928 by renowned course architect Alister Mackenzie, the 6,509-yard, par 72 Cypress Point course is known all over the world, in part for its breathtaking par-3 16th Hole that requires a shot over the ocean. Golfer Marion Hollins first conceived of the idea in 1924 and pursued the development of a first-class golf course and a clubhouse with a handful of sleeping rooms for a membership limited to 200 people who would pay about $2,500 (in 1924 dollars) to subscribe. The club is open only to members and their guests. PGA Class A golf pro Jim Langley, the course's pro, holds the course record 63. Cypress Point Club is located at 3150 17 Mile Drive. For information, contact the pro shop at (831) 624-2223.

Del Monte Golf Course — Nicknamed by locals "Old Del Monte," the Del Monte Golf Course was designed by golf and polo enthusiast Charles Maud and built in 1897, making it the oldest continuously operated course west of the Mississippi River. (The course at the Presidio in San Francisco was built a year earlier but was temporarily converted to a drill field during the Spanish-American War.) Owned and operated by the Pebble Beach Company, Old Del Monte — 6,357 yards, par 72 — is open to the public and is home to the Monterey Bay Golf Club, founded in 1932. Ken Venturi and Todd Gjesvold share the 62-shot record at the course, which was the original host of the California State Amateur and still hosts the annual Callaway Golf Pebble Beach Invitational. Green fees are $95, $58 for early twilight (beginning at 2:30 p.m.) and $25 for 5 p.m. twilight. Cart fee, $20, though pull carts are available for $10. A set of Callaway rental clubs is $45. Old D is located at 1300 Sylvan Road, adjacent to the Hyatt Regency Monterey. For more information, call (831) 373-2700 or visit www.pebblebeach.com.





Laguna Seca Golf Ranch, Monterey — Robert Trent Jones Sr. and Robert Trent Jones Jr. designed this public course together in 1970, making it their first joint venture. Johnny Miller once held the record 64 on its 6,174-yards but recently relinquished that distinction to Mark Darby, who beat him by one shot for a total 8 under par. The course is located off of Highway 68 east of the Monterey Airport and can be reached by turning north on York Road and following it to the end. Rates for spring (February and March) range from $25 to $45 Monday through Thursday, depending on the time of day, with fees increasing $5 Friday through Sunday. Cart fee is $34. For information, call (831) 373-3701 or visit www.lagunasecagolf.com, which also features online specials.

The Links at Spanish Bay, Pebble Beach — A resort course open for public play, the 6,821-yard par 72 Spanish Bay links were jointly designed by Robert Trent Jones, Jr., former USGA president Sandy Tatum and Tom Watson, who once remarked, "Spanish Bay is so much like Scotland, you can almost hear the bagpipes." It overlays land once occupied by a sand mine and included extensive rehabilitation of the dunes and native plants in the area. Tom Watson holds the record 67 on the course he helped design. Green fees are $215 (including cart, for resort guests); twilight rate is $110. Cart fee is $25, and caddies are available for $65. Clubs rent for $70 a set. The course is located at 2700 17 Mile Drive in Pebble Beach. For reservations, call (800) 654-9300 or visit www.pebble-beach.com, and remember to listen for the bagpiper who notifies golfers that the day's play is coming to an end.

Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Pebble Beach — The idea of Monterey Peninsula Country Club first arose in 1925 when S.F.B. Morse, James Habbord and Thorwell Mullally decided to combine a golf club with housing. Two courses make up MPCC: The Dunes course, designed by Seth Raynor in 1926, and redesigned by Rees Jones, and the Shore course, designed by Bob Baldock in 1961. Open only to members and their guests, the Dunes course runs a 6,762-yard par 72. The Shore Course had been closed for reconstruction but reopened in June with a yardage of 6,748 yards. Course architect for that project, which took 18 months to complete, was Michael Strantz. Course records include a 67 by Mike Driscoll on the Dunes Course and a 64 by Rick Leibovich on the previous Shore Course. Guest fees are $85 if accompanied, $300 if not; cart fees run $24-$30. For more information, call the pro shop at (831) 372-8141.

Monterey Pines Golf Course, Monterey — Formerly the U.S. Navy's golf course–and home of the Naval Postgraduate School Golf Club, the short 5,629-yard par 68 Monterey Pines — situated behind the fairgrounds in Monterey — is now open to the public and offers one of the best bargains in Peninsula golf. Robert Muir Graves designed the course in 1963, and the course record 63 is held by Peter Nilles. Green fees, $7-$24, and tee times may be reserved a certain number of days in advance, with preference given to military. Cart fee is $20. The course is located at Garden and Fairgrounds Road in Monterey, near the Monterey Airport. For more information, call the golf shop at (831) 656-2167 or visit www.montereypines-golf.com.

Pacific Grove Golf Links, Pacific Grove — Affectionately known as the "Poor Man's Pebble Beach," P.G. features a truly links-style back nine. ("Links" is an old Scottish word for "wasteland.") Designed by Jack Neville — who also designed Pebble Beach Golf Links — and H. Chandler Egan in 1932, this 5,732-yard par 70 public course is situated on prime real estate near Asilomar State Beach and surrounds the historic Point Pinos Lighthouse. The ocean scenery is unsurpassed. Sometimes plagued by Canada geese who enjoy the environs so much they refuse to migrate, the course superintendent hired a trainer and his herding dog to keep the birds off the grass. Plans for a new clubhouse are under way at the course, located at 77 Asilomar Blvd. in Pacific Grove. Course record 60 shared by Casey Boyns, Rich Hunter and Peter Vitarisi. Green fees are $32-$38; cart fee, $30. Call the golf shop at (831) 648-5777 for more information.

Pasadera Country Club, Monterey — One of the newest additions to premier golf courses on the Peninsula, Pasadera opened in 2000. Jack Nicklaus designed the 6,743-yard par 71 course, which is only open to members and their guests, though it has a reciprocal agreement with other private clubs. Capitalizing on the existing hills, canyons and old oak groves, Nicklaus used natural-style bunkering and took advantage of splendid hazards, such as the awe-inspiring par 3 over a deep chasm. Fred Shoemaker holds the course record 67. Located at 100 Pasadera Drive off Highway 68, Pasadera lies just east of Laguna Seca Golf Ranch and west of the world-famous race track by the same name. Its management was recently taken over by ClubCorp, which owns and operates nearly 200 golf courses, country clubs, golf resorts and private business clubs, and the pro shop can be reached by calling (831) 647-2421. Visit www.pasadera.com for more information.

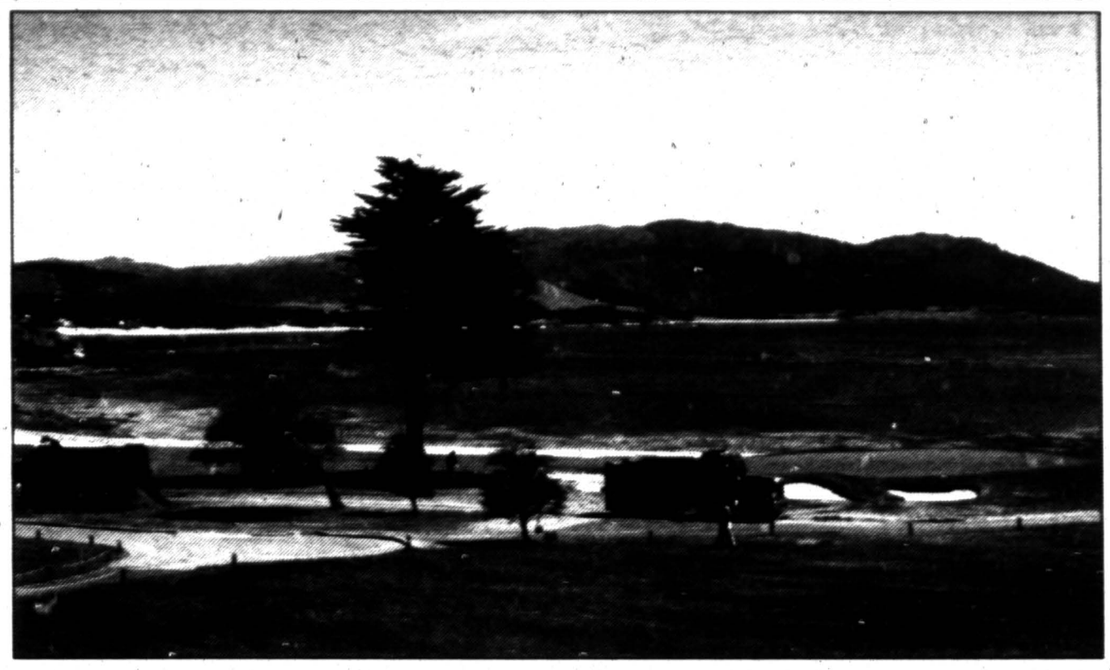
In 2000, the Pebble Beach Company replaced an ailing Monterey pine that stood near the 18th hole of the Pebble Beach Golf Links.



At tremendous expense, a Monterey cypress was moved into place from its original home on the first fairway.

was designed by Jack Neville and Douglass Grant, but Jack Nicklaus designed the new par-3 5th Hole, which was dedicated in November 1998. Pebble Beach has been the site of four U.S. Open Championships and was ranked the No. 1 Public Course in America by "Golf Digest" last year. Although the course is open to the public, priority is given to resort guests. Tom Kite, David Frost and David Duval share the course record 62. Green fees are $395, which includes a cart for resort guests. Cart fee for non-resort guests is $25, and the caddie fee is $65 per bag. Clubs rent for $70 a set. For more information, call golf reservations at (800) 645-9300 or visit www.pebblebeach.com.

Peter Hay, Pebble Beach — The only executive-length course on the Peninsula — called so because it's made up entirely of par-3 holes and thus can be played during a business person's lunch hour — Peter Hay features a compact 9 holes spanning from 58 to 104 yards in length. The course, open to the public for $20 all day, is named after one of Pebble Beach's favorite golf figures, Peter Hay, who was born in Aberdeen on Feb. 4, 1885, and first came to Del Monte in 1916. For more information, call (831) 622-8723.

Poppy Hills Golf Course, Pebble Beach — Commissioned by the Northern California Golf Association, the 6,833-yard par 72 Poppy Hills was designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr. in 1986 and is open to the public. Pro Matt Gogel holds the course record of 62. In 1991, Poppy Hills became one of the three courses hosting each year's AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Green fees, $52-$160; cart fee, $30. The course, the first in the United States to be owned and operated by an amateur golf association, is located at 3200 Lopez Road in Pebble Beach. For reservations, call (831) 625-2035 or visit www.poppyhillsgolf.com.

The Preserve Golf Course, Carmel Valley — Tom Fazio designed this private, 6,974-yard par 72 course located deep within the Santa Lucia Preserve and highlighted by the spectacular Santa Lucia Mountains. Fazio commented, "It's as if you are going on a grand hike and happen to have a golf club in your hand." The course opened in 1999, and Tim Hogarth, who enjoyed the course record 66 for several years, recently lost it to Dave Nelson, who shot a 65. Membership limited to 300 owners of property within the preserve's gates. Contact (831) 626-8200 for more information or visit www.santaluciapreserve.com.

Quail Lodge Resort and Golf Club, Carmel Valley — The 6,449-yard par 71 Quail Lodge course — abundant with 10 lakes and lush, colorful landscaping — was designed in 1963 by Robert Muir Graves. It was honored by "Golf for Women" as one of America's most women-friendly facilities. Pro Bobby Clampett shares the course record 62 with Lennie Clements. The course is open to members, guests and the public. Green fees run $125-$160 for resort guests, depending on time of year, and $160-$195 for non-resort guests Friday through Sunday and holidays; $140-$175 Monday through Thursday. Reduced rates available for 9 holes or twilight play, as well as for juniors. Rates include cart. Located at 8000 Valley Greens Way, the course also features a recently redesigned clubhouse and restaurant. For more information, contact the golf shop at (831) 620-8808 or visit www.quaillodge.com.

Rancho Cañada Golf Club, Carmel Valley — Situated along the Carmel River and on surrounding lands, Rancho Cañada features two 18-hole courses: the 6,349-yard par 71 West course and the 6,109-yard par 71 East course. Pro golfer Sam Snead once said the 15th Hole on Rancho Cañada's West course was the narrowest hole he had ever played. Course records include a 63 by Doug Sanders on the East course and a 64 by John Kennaday on the West course. Both designed by Robert Dean Putnam in 1970, these courses are open to the public and are located at 4860 Carmel Valley Road. Green fees and cart fees are the same as those charged for Laguna Seca Golf Ranch, and both courses are owned by longtime resident Nick Lombardo. Contact the golf shop at (831) 624-0111 or visit www.ranchocanada.com for more information.

Spyglass Hill Golf Course, Pebble Beach — Designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr. as part of the master plan for the Pebble Beach ocean front, this resort/semi-private course measures 6,862 yards at par 72 and takes its name from Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island." Local legend has it the author spent time walking in the area while brainstorming. Many of its holes bear notable names, such as Black Dog and Billy Bones. The year after the course was completed, Spyglass replaced Monterey Peninsula Country Club's Dunes Course in the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament in 1967 and has been part of the tournament — now the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am — ever since. Course record 64 is held by Dan Forsman and David Berganio. Green fees are $275 (including cart, for resort for resort guests); $160 for twilight. Cart fee is $25, and caddies are available for $65 a bag. The course is located at Stevenson Drive and Spyglass Hill Road in Pebble Beach. For reservations, call (800) 654-9300 or visit www.pebble-beach.com.

Tehama Golf Club, Carmel Valley — Jay Morrish designed this 6,498-yard par 72 course high in the hills above Carmel Valley. Owned by former Carmel Mayor Clint Eastwood, the course opened for private play in 1999. The course record 64 shot by Tim Rouillard was recently beaten by Rick Leibovich, who came in 2 strokes lower. Members and guests only. Guest fees run $75-$200, including cart. For more information on Tehama, which is located at 25000 Via Malpaso off Carmel Valley Road, contact the golf shop at (831) 622-2250. ❍

The oldest continually operating golf course west of the Mississippi, the Del Monte Golf Course, nicknamed "Old Del Monte," was designed and built by Charles Maud in 1897.
